7. Grant: See separate email.

8. Explore possibility of making Lecturers Subcommittee a standing committee
 9. Adjournment

10. Update 22-23 FAC 12 policy for compensation to include ExCom, subcommittees, etc. not just standing committees

11. Explore Constitution/Bylaws changes related to lecturer faculty, such as making those eligible for emeritus status regular members of University Faculty, creating Senate representation for lecturer faculty who are not eligible for lecturer electorate

12. Explore how to compensate lecturer faculty for work outside classroom (writing letters of rec, advising, mentoring)

13. Update document with recommendations about how depts should treat lecturers (perhaps create a bigger bill of rights for lecturer faculty which includes colleges and university, support for prof dev, etc.)

14. following the passage of lecturers as University Faculty: that we draft another amendment for lecturers to be able to vote in college and dept. Meetings.

15. How do we share info and work on lecturer recruitment for various shared governance positions.

16. Encourage departments to create orientations - quick start guide for each dept. for lecturers

Sociology has a dept. Manual - provided to all faculty.

Committee could provide a general guide that provides universal information and then ask departments to put in their individualized info

17. Lecturer faculty and pedagogy - and how it relates to student evaluations
