

Everything the Laze System and Hyarkus have done.

So that people don't get confused, we will only be using He/Him pronouns on Val (Laze System). We will also use the same name and pronouns for people who appear in this document multiple times.

The Laze System is known as Nero, Val, Sputnik, Lucius, Clown House, Skydivin and many other names. Firebomb, SpearBin, and the one with a purple role is Val.

The person with "si mark" or "yara" as a username is Yara, also known as hyarkus on Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram.

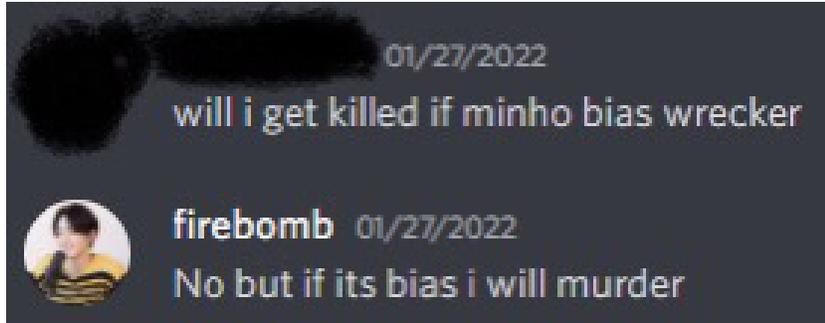

DISCLAIMER: Please don't harass or interact with both Val and Yara for your own safety. A list of their social media will be put at the end of this document. Block them and leave it at that.

TRIGGER WARNINGS: R*pe, NSFW, Body-shaming, Sexualizing Kpop idols, Death Threats, Racism, Pro shipping, Guilt-tripping

VAL / SKYDIVIN

I. General Mistakes

- A. Aggressiveness when liking the same characters and people. He defends himself by saying it's because of a "Solidarity Complex."
 - 1. Childe Incident
 - 2. S Skin Incident (See II., D.)
 - 3. Aster Mudae Incident (See II., D.)
 - 4. Leeknow Incident (With a friend and Astro)

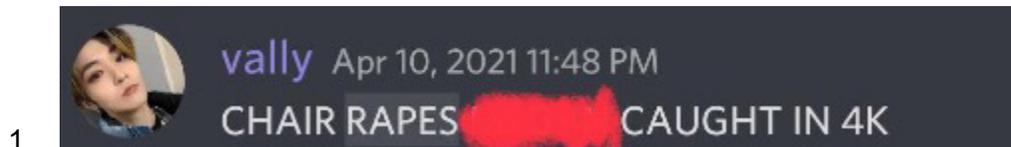

a)

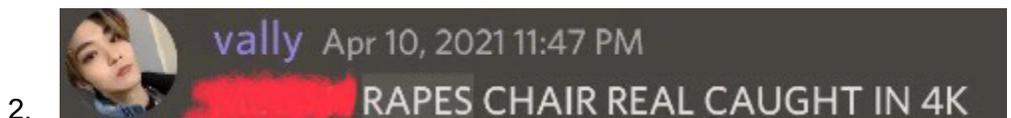

- B. Dismissing past mistakes instead of apologizing for them.
 - 1. He justifies not apologizing for these mistakes by saying he has a bad memory.
 - 2. A friend has brought up his past NSFW remarks multiple times but he just laughed it off.

II. Made many mistakes in the past that he never apologized for, despite being brought to his attention multiple times.

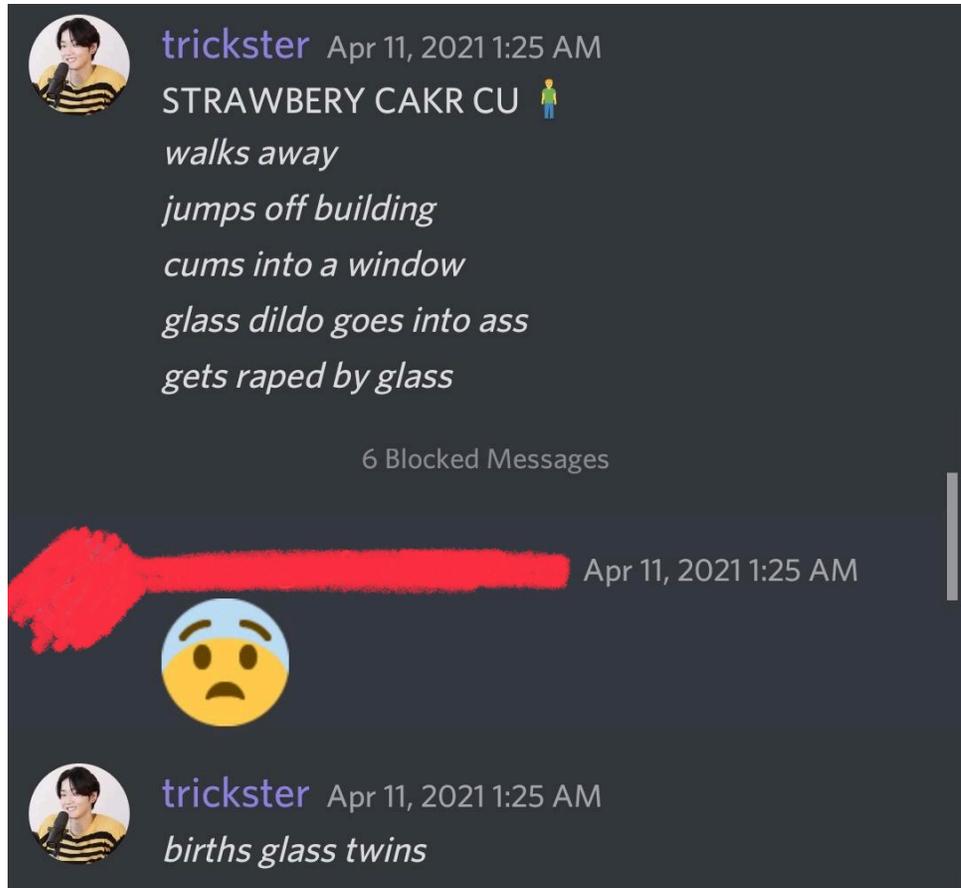

- A. Not one but four r*pe jokes. Two of them were about a minor.

3.

- B. Sexualizing someone else's OC and his abusive father's relationship
 - 1. One of his friends was projecting onto the said OC, too. Val already knows that this friend is very attached to their characters due to a past issue.

- C. Body-shaming Aster's flat chest. This pressured and pushed them to show their cleavage.
- D. Yelled and threatened people for winning in gacha games despite knowing that the results in gacha games are randomized.
 - 1. S Skin Incident
 - a) A friend got an S Skin in the game Identity V. Val proceeded to yell and curse at them.

2. Aster Mudae Incident

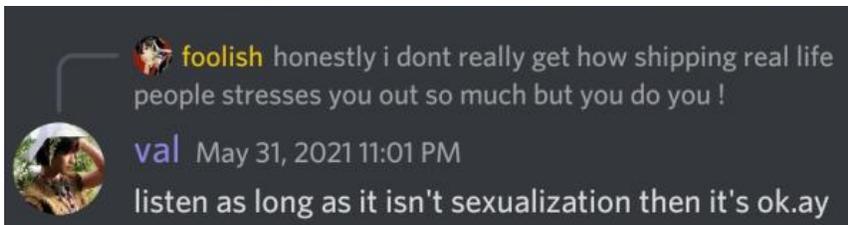

- a) Aster got a character Val wanted in the Discord Bot Mudae. Val proceeded to threaten Aster and act passive-aggressive towards them for a period of time.

- E. Constantly made NSFW jokes and detailed NSFW remarks in a server full of minors while being a minor himself.

III. Kpop and Interests

- A. Writing literal smut fanfictions about real-life kpop idols.

- 1. Claims to ship lightheartedly.
- 2. Claims he doesn't approve of sexualizing idols. Contradicting himself.

a)

- B. Always venting about not having people listen to his infodumps.

- 1. Multiple people respond and participate in Val's infodumps often. Despite this, Val still vents about not having anyone who listens to him regularly.
- 2. Has (Now had) a partner who listens to his infodumps. Val constantly vents to his partner about not having anyone listen to him which only makes his partner feel more invalidated.

IV. OCs

- A. Little research when writing and drawing black characters.

- 1. Bea, Val's OC, has her whole character about how she's black and a woman. She has traits that make her fall into black stereotypes. Such as not being able to control her emotions and always distrusting white people.

2. Drew Bea's lips in a racist way. Ignored a friend's tutorial to educate him on why drawing big, light pink lips are bad.

B. Complaining about not getting attention from his characters.

1. Complains often why another friend's characters get more attention despite having problematic characters like Bea.

V. Venting and Vague-posting

A. Venting

1. Vents about his partner's queerplatonic partner to him instead of having a proper talk to set boundaries.

2. Always acts passive-aggressive when a certain friend vents and never lets them talk about their feelings.

3. When Astro was venting about receiving a bottle of wine for Christmas, Val started complaining about his own gift in front of Astro in the same channel.

4. In vents, he claims he knows what he's doing and did was wrong but he does it anyway because he wants to be liked.

B. Vague-posting

1. Vague posts about a certain friend often but gets upset when that friend vague posts about him.

2. Guilts and vague posts about others instead of confronting them often and regularly.

VI. Other Mistakes

A. Watched a "Put Your Finger Down If..." video on Tiktok that said "You probably have autism!" at the end. He proceeded to take one Autism quiz that wasn't even reliable because it used outdated terms like Aspergers. He acknowledged that the site wasn't reliable but he still used this as his basis for having Autism.

1. His ex-partner suggested interviewing people with or researching Autism but Val added Autistic to his carrd a few hours later.

B. Treating factives like their sources.

1. His Kevin introject fell in love with a Jacob introject within a few days just because he was a Jacob introject.

2. Source dating is alright but in this case, they immediately fall for each other within days of forming just because of their source. They have done this multiple times.

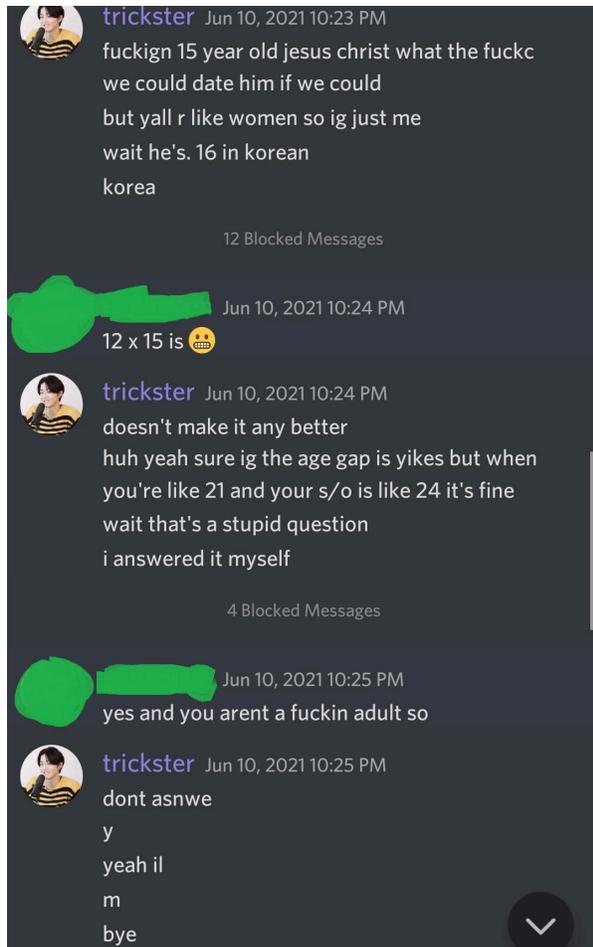

C. Making fun of a friend for not knowing how to play Identity V. The friend didn't understand how to play and no one helped them.

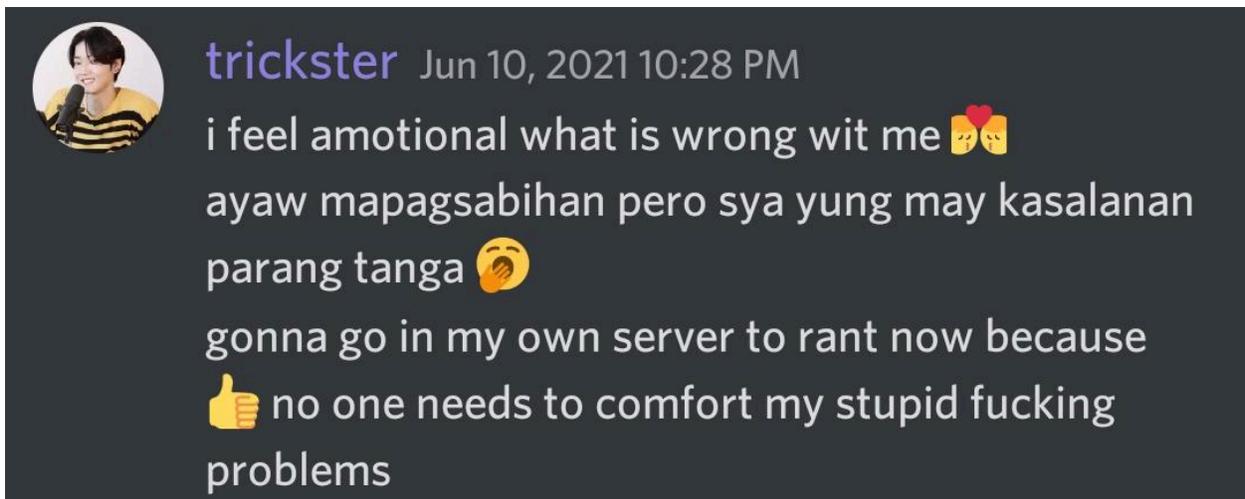

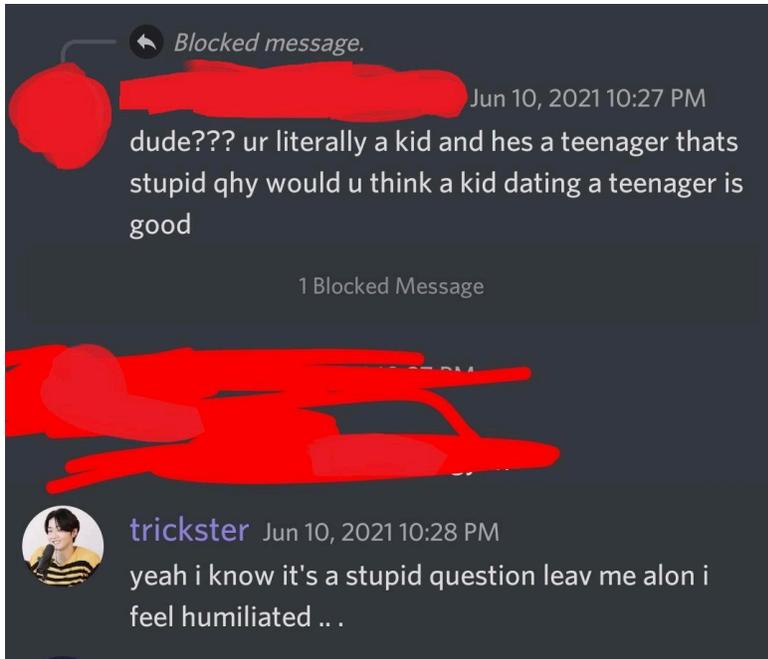

D. Yelling and swearing at Astro for throwing in an Identity V match. Two other friends were also in the voice chat at this time.

E. Flirting with his current partner when he was dating someone else at the time. He also vented about him and his partner in a server they were both in.

EXAMPLES OF VAL GUILT-TRIPPING OTHERS WHEN HE'S IN THE WRONG:

Context: Val was talking about how minors can date kpop idols.

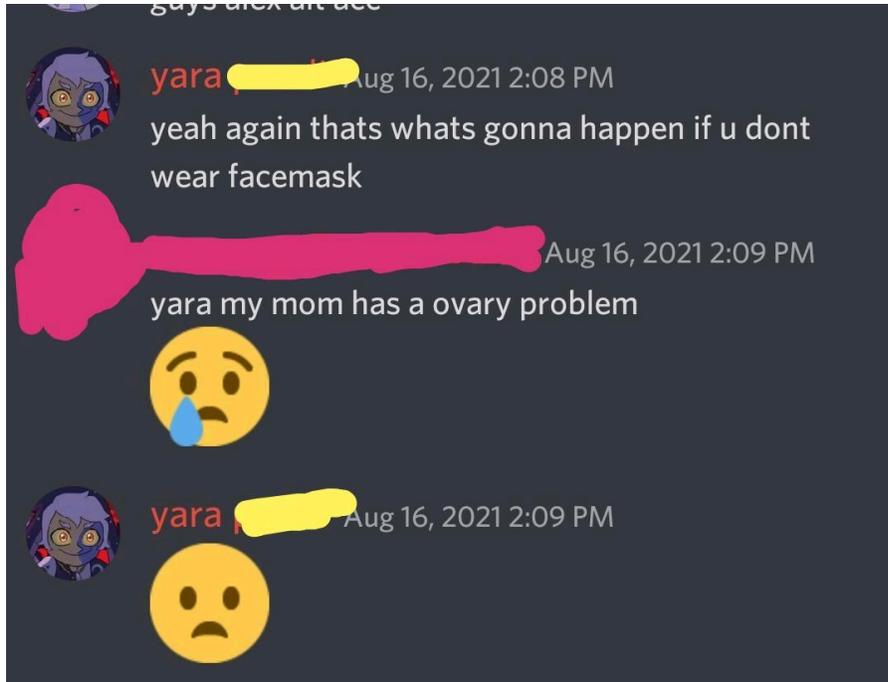

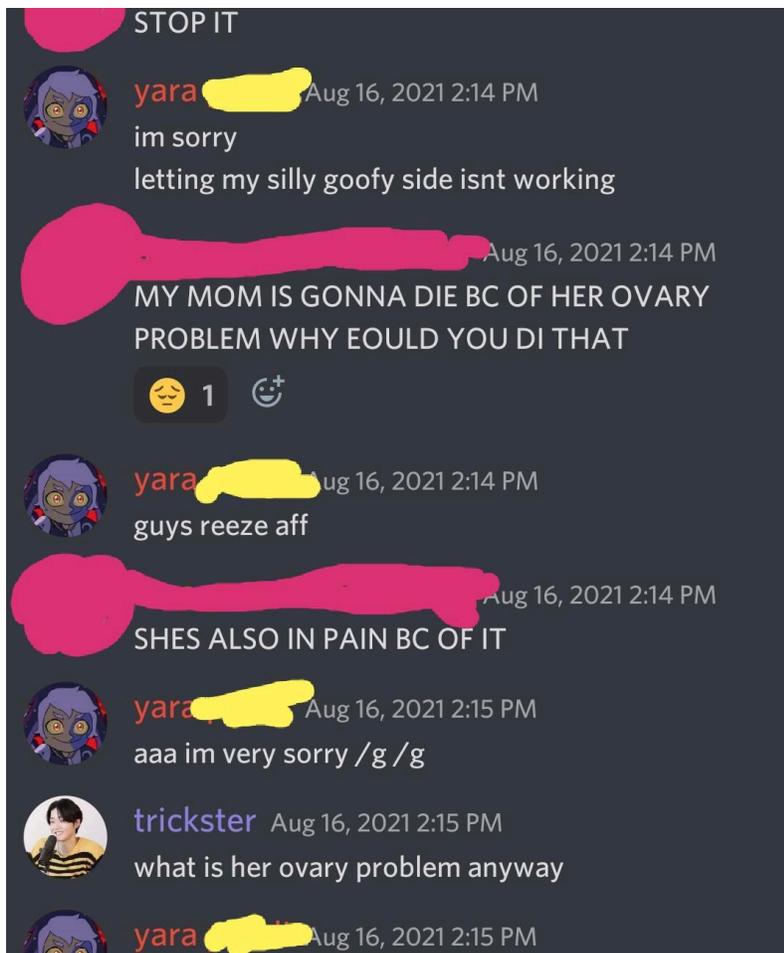

This was said in another channel immediately after. Translation: “Doesn’t want to be told off but they’re the one at fault. Fucking idiot.” Talking about himself.

YARA / HYARKUS

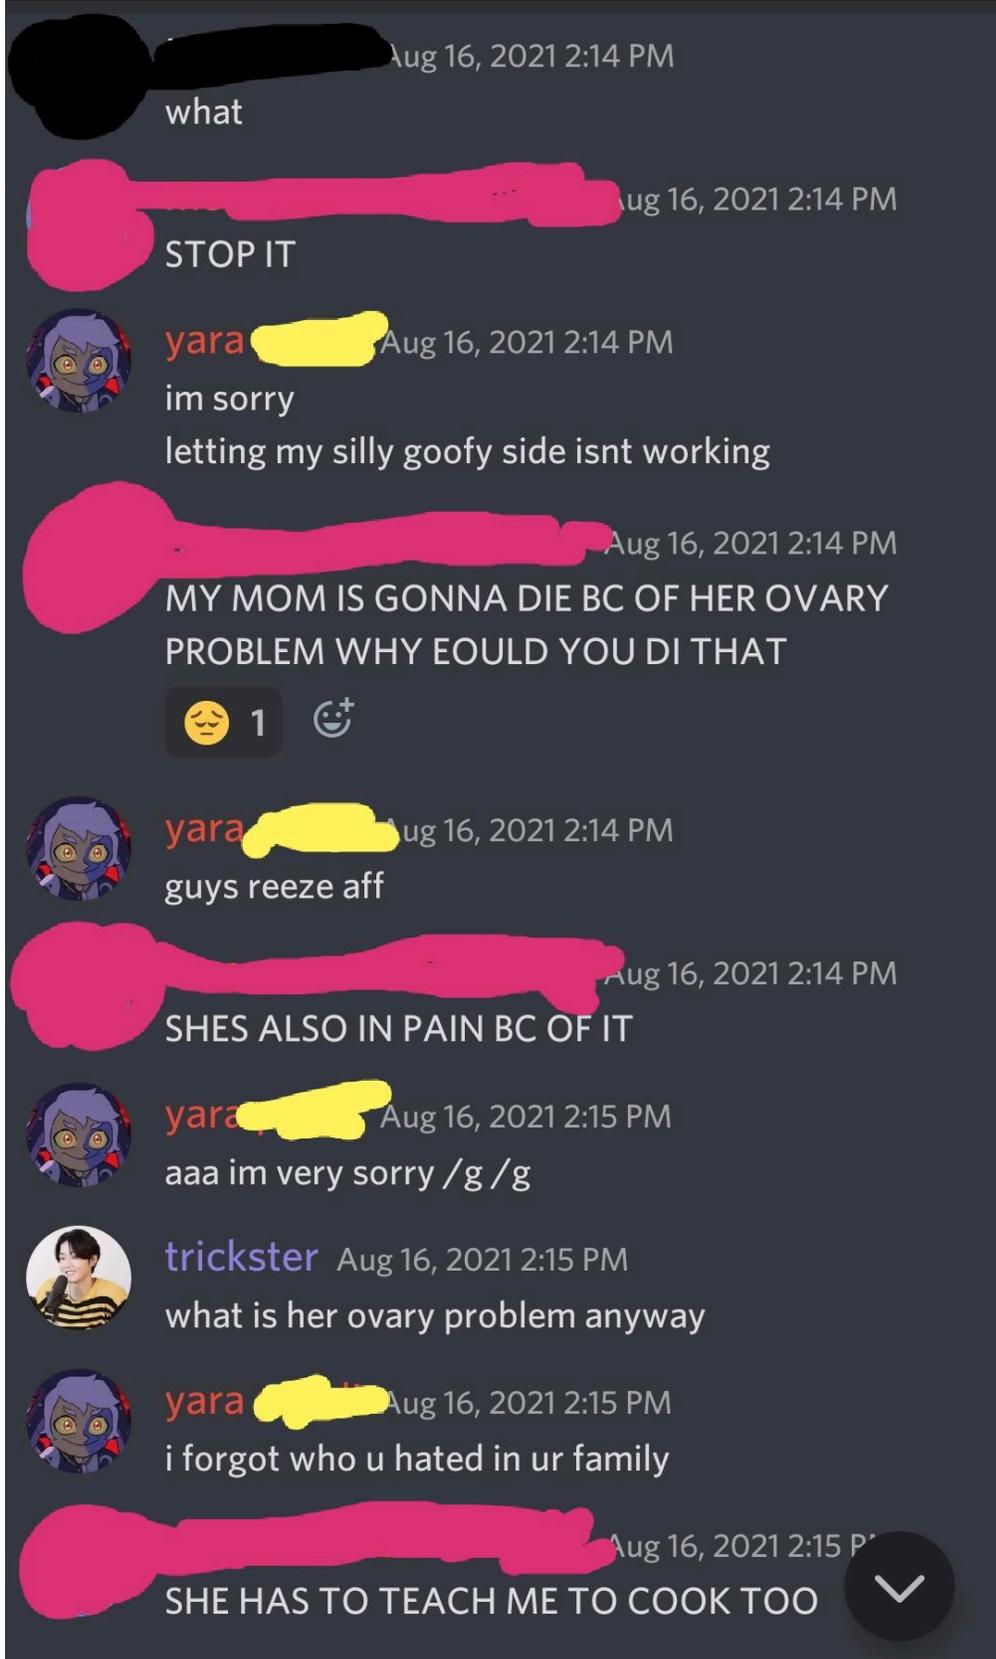

- I. Made fun of a friend’s mother who had ovary cancer and didn’t properly apologize. Val was also part of this.

A.

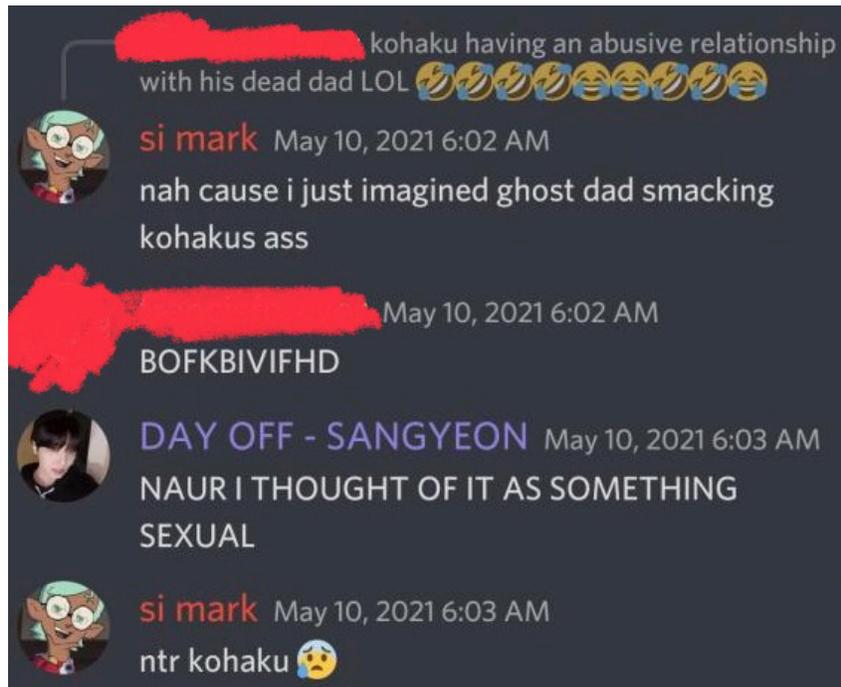

B.

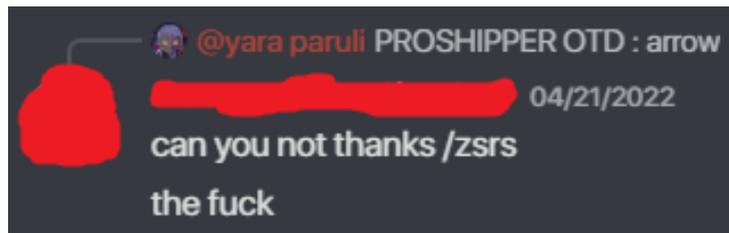

C.

II. Made weird (sexual) jokes about a friend's comfort character. Val was also part of this.

A.

B.

III. Yara is still associating with Val despite knowing what he's done. She has complained about him and his actions but still acts close with him.
