

SL: Shh... Keep it to Yourself, Lucia!

Hey Lucia D,

Wondering why I'm reaching out to you? Let me be crystal clear...

Over the last 4 months, I've meticulously analyzed 7 proficient funnels, including Joey Kidney, Brad Browning, Chris Seiter, and more.

This in-depth research has led me to create a groundbreaking strategy called "The ReconnectX."

Which is now seamlessly integrated with your "No Contact Secret" page.

But here's the catch: I'm sharing this exclusive opportunity with a select few real experts, and you're one of them.

Let's dive into a glimpse of what lies beneath:

1. Reframe Lucia's 17 years of expertise as the leading authority.
2. Establish a Price Anchoring Technique to reframe your E-Book.
3. Uncover 20 more unique strategies to give you an unparalleled edge.

Remember, as Lucia rightly said, "You hold all the cards," which means you hold all chances to innovate.

So once you've looked, does the "ReconnectX" match your Convincing Tone?

See you soon,

William Casey

P.S. As a bonus, I'll send you a simple digital opt-in page on Tuesday to generate leads and boost your future cash flow.

Hey Lucia D,

I hope your YouTube "The Art Of Love with Lucia" does well.

I wanted to take a moment to express my genuine admiration for your work, Particularly your insightful 34-page No-Contact Preview E-Book.

The way you skillfully incorporate "Emotive language", and handle skepticism around "The 30-day No-Contact Rule" is truly commendable.

As promised, here's the Digital Pop-up Page:

I wanted to be crystal clear that I have a wealth of risk-free ideas to level up your landing page funnel.

To respect your valuable time, I won't inundate your inbox with emails.

Instead, I propose a 20-minute Zoom call where we can discuss "Lead Generation Ideas" and how they can precisely benefit your appearance.

Could you kindly double-check your schedule in July and reply with a suitable date and time for the call?

Sincerely,
William Casey

Hey Lucia D,

It seems like this may not be a priority for you at the moment, and that's absolutely fine.

But if you find yourself interested in the future, feel free to reach out.

Right now, I'm quite occupied with a client, and there are numerous exciting projects keeping me busy.

Take care, and see you around.

Cheers,

William Casey
