Re: Spring 2025 election information for residents

Wisconsin's Spring 2025 election is now just weeks away on Tuesday, April 1. As it is with every election, the goal of the League of Women Voters of Dane County is for all eligible voters to be able to register, cast a ballot and have their vote counted.

This letter contains information we hope you will share with your residents. This information can be included in welcome packets, emails and newsletters; featured on your website for residents, and/or posted onsite in common areas.

Key dates for the April 1 general election are:

Mar 4 Last day to establish residency for April 1 Election
Mar 11 City Clerks begin mailing absentee ballots to voters with requests on file
Mar 12 Last day to register online or by mail
Mar 18 - 30 Early Voting (In-Person Absentee)
No registration after Friday, Mar 28
Dates, locations and hours vary by municipality: Visit myvote.wi.gov for details.
Mar 27 Last day to request an absentee ballot
Apr 1 Election Day

The following information specific to your location is available at myvote.wi.gov:

- Municipal clerk name and contact information
- Election day polling place

Information to Share with Residents

In addition to the above information, the attached flyers will help your residents be informed, engaged and ready to vote in Wisconsin elections.

- Be Ready to Vote.pdf – This one-page flyer is a helpful addition to new-resident packets any time of year. Everyone who moves to a new address must update their voter registration. Be Ready to Vote explains how to do that and educates voters about election resources.
- Spring Elections 2025.pdf – This document gives dates for the Spring 2025 elections and explains what is the April 1 ballot. It also covers the basics of voter registration, voter ID and more.

Voting information is an important service you can offer to help ensure residents are able to exercise their fundamental right to vote. Our goal is to support you in doing that, and we hope these materials will assist you and your residents. If you have questions or know of additional ways we can help, please contact us at apartment@lwvdanecounty.org.
