

Since 2016, the Toronto Philosophy Meetup has been holding regular events that are free, open to the public, and help to foster community and a culture of philosophy in Toronto and beyond. To help us continue to do so into the future, please consider supporting us with a donation! Any amount is most welcome.

You can make a one-time or recurring donation here

Currently, all proceeds are being used for Meetup costs to help sustain the group (which run to about C$280 a year). In the future, any extra will be put towards philosophical and community-building purposes.

Below is a list of our one-time and sustaining donors. We thank them for their generosity and for supporting philosophy in Toronto and beyond!
