Leena is a movement artist hailing from the Midwest, who discovered her passion for circus arts in 2014. Since then, she has honed her craft, sharing her distinctive style through performances and workshops across the U.S. With expertise in a diverse range of skills—including hula hooping, fire manipulation (such as fire hoop, fans, poi, sword, dragon staff, contact staff, and double staff), and acrobatics—Leena creates mesmerizing experiences that captivate audiences. Her innovative approach, combined with a keen sense of musicality, pushes the boundaries of the art form. Leena is committed to fostering originality and creativity, inspiring others to reach their fullest potential.
