This workshop, led by [INSTRUCTOR NAME], is designed for graduate students who want to understand more about the copyright issues they are likely to encounter. The workshop will cover:

- What copyright is and what copyrights you have in your work;
- Using third-party works in your writing, including using public domain and openly licensed works, relying on fair use, and securing permission;
- Depositing your dissertation or thesis online;
- Considerations when signing a publication contract; and
- Managing your online scholarly identity.

Join us to learn how to navigate copyright issues so you can focus on your scholarship!
