

11/3/23

Ready to learn more?

Did the school play get you thinking more about D&D? Lucky for you, our amazing SORA app offers Dungeons and Dragons Magazine! You'll find it, and 160 more titles in the digital magazine section. Let me know if you need help signing up!

Native American Heritage Month

Join me in celebrating Native American stories, history, and folklore. We have a wealth of titles in the du Pont, both physical and digital. There are also many amazing resources available to you through the vast reaches of the internet! Here are some favorites!

Boston Public Library Celebrates Native American Heritage Month

NEH Resources for Native American Heritage Month

The National Archives Celebrates NAHM

PBS for Native American History

Sunday Speaker Series:

On Sunday from 6:45-7:45, join me for an evening of classical guitar and conversation. This will be our last series until spring term- so come on out and enjoy the culture, the company, and some cookies!

SUNDAY SPEAKER SERIES

JOIN US IN THE DU PONT LIBRARY
AT POMFRET SCHOOL

Mark &
Beverly
Davis

Nov. 5, 6:45–7:45 PM
An evening of classical guitar

The classical guitar duo of local residents Mark and Beverly Davis will perform selections of their favorite music and discuss the repertoire, their instruments, and the stories behind the pieces.

THIS WEEK'S TRIVIA!

Who is the Native American author known for writing the novel 'The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian,' which won the National Book Award for Young People's Literature in 2007? Give it a try HERE.

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION:

With a nod to my beautiful home state of Maine and to the season: What is the name of the television series that ties together multiple stories and places from the great novels and short stories of Stephen King? There were two possible answers! Castle Rock or Under the Dome

Have a great weekend!
Your Librarian,
MsJ

