INTRODUCTION

It shows the background of the research and the previous studies as the basis of this research's novelty. In addition, it covers the study in a broad context briefly and highlights why it is important. It defines the purpose of the work and its significance. It also cites some key publications. In addition, it shows the research gap. The gap in the literature should be critically well-established. The current state of the research field should be reviewed carefully.

The body paper should be elaborated between 4.000-6.000 words. It is written in Garamond, 12 points in 1.15 spacing, and justified. Moreover, the author(s) must use this template file (do not create a new one).

Finally, research questions are generated accordingly. The aim of the research and its significance should be defined clearly. As far as possible, keep the introduction comprehensible.

RESEARCH METHOD

It should be written in paragraphs. It should clearly explain the research design/approach. It mentions the subject of the study. Moreover, it explains the data collection technique and data analysis. It should reflect and describe the purpose of the study appropriately.

RESULT AND DISCUSSION

Subheading (bold, Garamond 12)

It refers to the total of outcomes, the result of data analysis. The results should be discussed for each. It covers how they can be interpreted from the perspective of the theories and studies. The findings and their implications should be addressed based on the context.

The discussion interprets and describes the significance of the findings in light of what was already known about the research problem being investigated. It also explains any new understanding or insights from the theories and/or the other research.

CONCLUSION

It summarizes the main points of evidence or the findings of the research problems. It presents the generalization of the results and research discoveries. It also provides limitations of the study and recommendations for future studies. Please do not restate the findings and discussion. Provide a discussion of the overall coverage of the article and concluding remarks.

REFERENCES

References should be cited in the text and the references list. They should conform to the Chicago Manual of Style 17th Edition (full note). It should be listed in alphabetical order. Please ensure that all information in your manuscript taken from another source is substantiated with an in-text reference citation. For each submission, a minimum of 80% of sources taken from reputable international journals and published ten (10) years recently is required.

The articles should cite (at least) 25 references. Please note that your references must follow the Chicago Manual of Style 17th Edition style (the editor will return your submission for correction if you do not properly format your references). Author (s) may employ Zotero, Mendeley, Endnote, etc.
