Principal's Report

- Bell Let's Talk Day - Jr High came together in the gym
- Literacy Week - Stations. We saw the intermediate students step up to be group leaders in their groups. Group story was a great success.
- Quebec trip - wonderful experience, new friendships
- Teacher/Staff appreciation week- luncheon/snacks provided was greatly appreciated.
- School Development Surveys - link on Facebook and emailed to families
- School Calendar - School starts Sept. 4th. Christmas break is Dec. 20th - Jan. 6th.
- Winter Carnival - both activities involving the school were successful. Many comments on how well behaved our students were and how wonderful it was to have them involved. breakfast made over $800 on the tickets.
- Kinderstart Session 2 on Tuesday, Feb. 27th. We have 9 Kinderstart students. School district member in attendance.
- The Minister of Education was here to visit the library on Tuesday, Feb. 27th.
- Volleyball team won Silver in the invitational tournament at Pearson Academy.
- Breakfast program update - We received $4680 in memory of Joette Wells. That will be matched by Kids Eat Smart. Before Easter, we will have a memorial breakfast for Joette and something permanent to have at the school. Perhaps a breakfast cart.

Upcoming Events

- Pink Shirt Day tomorrow. Activities in the afternoon. Dances hosted by the Leadership group.
- Easter break (March 29th - April 8th)
- Naloxone kits arrived at the school. Staff have gone over the videos. Mr. Chippett will complete training this week. Public health will do training for the whole staff.
- Junior High Lions Speak Out is in the works.
- RCMP IICE Unit will be doing a presentation with Intermediate students regarding internet safety.
  - Jennifer asked if Gr. 5 could also be involved in the presentation. We will look into having an additional presentation for them.
- Report card prep day - March 8th
- Report cards go out March 13th. FTI will be March 14th.

Other

- When will we do the Playground activity? Will get it in next week (March 4th - March 7th)
- Jennifer Tucker brought up the idea of having parents take part in games and activities in the gym. Education week may be a good time for this.
- Amy suggested a youth volleyball camp for Gr. 2-4. Will discuss after the rink closes.
