Maths Workshop: Geometry & Shapes

11th May 2020 - Miss Morris

Decagon - a shape with 10 sides

Nonagon - a shape with 9 sides

Octagon - a shape with 8 sides

Heptagon - a shape with 7 sides

Hexagon - a shape with 6 sides

Pentagon - a shape with 5 sides

Quadrilateral - 4 sides
(Square, Rectangle, Parallelogram, Diamond, Trapezium)

Triangle - a shape with 3 sides
Acute - angle less than 90 degrees
Right Angle - exactly 90 degrees
Obtuse Angle - larger than 90 degrees

Circle - never ending line
Circumference - length around the outside
Radius - outside to the middle
Diameter - whole way across the circle going through the middle