

Campus Librarian Network weekly workshop

Virtual

April 7th, 2020

11:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Workshop Facilitator(s): Russell West

Category: Campus Librarians Network (CLN)

Expected Attendees: Librarians

Summary of Objectives

We will open with a "topic of the week" for campus librarians during the Learn at Home period.

Participants will then share successful approaches to school librarianship during the COVID-19 interruption and co-create approaches to challenges.

An additional half-hour is provided for informal conversation.

Notes:

Handling Zoom Switch Over:

- Zoom Bombing'
- Three school Migrating to meet (google platform conferencing tool) from zoom. Needs to use google suite domain to create meet, teacher needs to be the last person out of the meeting to allow people in/out of the room.
- Transitioning to flipped classroom approach.
- Zoom not FERPA compliant, possibility that it violates student protection laws (State/Federal/City), privacy issues on back end.

Meetings:

- 5/8/2020 CLN meeting likely to be cancelled.

Table:

- Virtual programming should be earlier in the year to give us time to actually make it happen.

General:

- Doing things differently with next unexpected week
 - School Spirit week
 - Tik Tok colabs
 - Shared condensed resources via google doc & Harry Potter 'Things'
 - Are there Virtual Libraries that can be visited?
 - Library of Congress website
