

iwaiz's ToS

By commissioning me you agree to my terms of service.

general info

1. my commissions are not first come first serve, i like working on multiple drawings at a time, focusing on the easiest pieces for me to finish
2. my current queue can be checked on trello
3. my turnaround time is about 1-2 months, please keep that in mind and if you're not okay with waiting, i may not be the right artist for you. it mostly depends on my current workload and my mental health, as i also work a regular job besides commissions
4. my work doesn't always fit the labels of "full body" and "half body", so i decided to drop it completely and charge one price. for easier reference please assume the drawing is gonna end at the character's thighs, so we're on the same page and you're not disappointed later. i try to fit the character(s) into the canvas in such way, so there's as little empty space as i can manage, instead of trying to fit the whole character at the expense of making the canvas blank
5. please be aware that the colors may not always be a 100% match (e.g. i often adjust the hue subtly to better fit my artstyle)

commission process

1. i announce my openings on my twitter page
2. dm me on twitter to claim a slot
3. if i'm closed but you feel like your commission idea matches my preferences and isn't a complex request, i might accept it despite having full slots
4. i need a visual reference of your character(s), as i don't work with written character descriptions. pose references are very helpful, although not necessary - everything works, be it stick men or mspaint drawings
5. i'll send you at least one wip (two for colored commissions) or more if needed

- a. sketch approval - during the sketch phase you can request small changes or adjustments (details, expression, limb placement, body size etc.)
 - b. colors approval - after your commission is colored you can ask for the change of colors or some minor details in the sketch that weren't noticed earlier
 - c. keep in mind i won't redo the whole sketch
6. you can request a version with transparent background at any point, free of charge
7. finished commission will be sent to you via email
8. your commission may be posted on twitter, furaffinity or e6, unless you ask for a private commission beforehand

payment and refunds

1. payment is upfront via paypal invoice
2. all prices are in usd
3. i can issue a refund only if i haven't fully finished the sketch yet
 - a. if i already started working on a commission and/or sent a wip to you, the returned amount will be 50% of your commission's price
 - b. if i haven't started working on your commission yet, the returned amount will be 95% of your commission's price (to compensate for paypal fees)
4. in case of a refund you lose the rights to whatever progress of the refunded artwork has been drawn

usage

1. my commissions are not for commercial use
2. when buying a commission from me, you also buy the personal rights to the artwork, meaning you're free to
 - a. edit the drawing yourself or have it altered/colored/shaded etc. by another artist
 - b. upload/post the artwork anywhere you want
 - c. resell adopts
3. credit is greatly appreciated when sharing my art, although not mandatory
