

RedHawk Virtual Invitational

LIVE DEBATE JUDGES INFORMATION

REMINDERS/ NOTES

(This portion may have more info added throughout the tournament as issues come up.)

Do not have more than one video call/link open at a time. This means that you must leave the judges room before going to the competition rooms.

You may have non-performing competitors turn off their cameras in round if the connection seems to be weak. However, it is expected that competitors use their camera while performing.

We will be assigning ballots on a rolling basis, so please stay in the judges room until we give an all clear each round.

DATES

Saturday, Nov 21st - Live Debate

CHECK IN

Check in through the "Judge Room" on tabroom. This is how we will know you are ready to judge. See below.

CHECK OUT

Please let the Judge Staff in the Judge Room know that you will be checking out. If you do not let us know, we will continue to assign ballots to you which will then put us behind schedule.

We will also provide a phone number for texting the tab staff if there are issues during a round.

JUDGING PROCESS

1. Login to Tabroom.com
2. Access your online ballot. (Directions here)
3. Current Rounds will have a link to your assigned room in NSDA Campus and your ballot. See below.

Current Rounds

4. Once all performances have been watched and feedback is given, choose the winners in debate or rank the performances. 5. Submit your ballot.

FEEDBACK	Please be sure to leave feedback for each student. This is an early season tournament and students have had a varying amount of practice time for their performances. Be sure to SAVE your comments. For some, this may be their first tournament ever. Be gentle and educational in your comments. We will also ask that you follow the National Speech & Debate Association's stance on Implicit Bias: "We are all influenced by implicit bias, or the stereotypes that unconsciously affect our decisions. When judging, our implicit biases negatively impact traditionally marginalized and disenfranchised students. Before writing comments or making a decision, please take a moment to reflect on any biases that may impact your decision making."
