Where the Rainbow Ends!

Where the rainbow ends
There's going to be a place, brother,
Where the world can sing all sorts of songs
And we're going to sing together, brother,
You and I, though you're white and I'm not.
It's going to be a sad song, brother,
Because we don't know the tune.
And it's a difficult tune to learn.
But we can learn, brother, You and I.
There's no such tune as a black tune.
There's no such tune as a white tune.
There's only music, brother,
And it's music we are going to sing.
Where the rainbow ends.

Health means different things to different people. To someone, it means not having pains anywhere in the body, others think of it as being free of illness or disease. According to the World Health Organization (WHO), "Health is a state of complete physical, mental and social well being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity." Most people just think of the last part of the definition “The absence of disease or infirmity”, but apparently there is more to health than just that. Let us look at the other three aspects mentioned in the definition – “Complete physical, mental and social well-being.” Physical health means how well all the different parts of the body function, mental health refers to the ability to make and keep relationship with other people. All these different aspects are necessary for the complete health of the individual.

In the East, we have our own definition of health. The Hindus do not consider the body and the spirit as separate from each other, but as an integrated whole. Both body and spirit are an integral part of human beings. The Taoists believe that both body and mind should be in a state of balance.

Nowadays school and colleges have become the abode of indiscipline. Everybody knows that students have become in disciplined. At the time of examination police are called. Who will be happy when he sees a policeman standing at the gate with a stick in his hand? One is tempted to ask, “what is the use of this education where policeman are needed for conducting examinations?”

The aim of education is to wipe out the existence of the force. When a father sends his son to school, does he think that his son will become a thief? So it not an irony that parents spend money to see their children thieves, robbers and notorious ones? I call those students thieves who copy in the examination hall at the point of a knife, stick, khukuri, pistol or bayonet are no better than robbers. Can any father be happy when he sees this?

The cause of such indiscipline is that students don't read and teachers don't teach. Generally, in many places inefficient teachers are appointed by the authorities on the basis of recommendation. Sometimes they select inefficient hands to pay less. The result is that the schools/colleges play with the lives of the young students. Among teachers, there is friction, sometimes principals harass teachers and sometimes teachers unite against them. The result is that schools/colleges which are the Bidya Mandirs become places of petty party politics.

Another cause is that schools and colleges are over-crowded. Ill-fed, ill-clothed and tuition hunter teachers are there to teach. Papers are out. Students are tempted to go to the safest way of tuition. When there is no work, indiscipline comes in. an idle man's mind is the devil's workshop.
