POETRY SPEAKS 2021

To help you find material of interest, we have narrowed the poem choices to those below. If you do not find material that captivates you, please feel free to search the Poetry Out Loud anthology. Any poem found in the anthology will qualify for our Poetry Speaks events.

ACTIVITIES

Blackberry-Picking

Blind Curse

Childhood

The Card Players

Enough

ARTS & SCIENCES

After The War

An Apology For Her Poetry

Angels

Brian Age Seven

The Chimney Sweeper: A little black thing among the snow

The End Of Science Fiction

MYTHOLOGY & FOLKLORE

Brother, I've seen some

If You Go to Bed Hungry

Stepping Stones

Fairy-Tale Logic

Eagle Plain

LOVE

Amor Mundi

April Midnight

Time does not bring relief; you all have lied

When You Are Old

That's My Heart Right There

NATURE

Abandoned Farmhouse

After The Winter

Alive

The Arrow and the Song

Acquainted with the Night

SOCIAL COMMENTARY

Battlefield

At the Vietnam Memorial

Written By Himself

The way we live now

We Who Weave

SORROW & GRIEF

Bereavement

Prayer for My Father

Ways of Talking

A Thank-You Note

When I Am Asked

POETRY OUT LOUD

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS

POETRY

MINNESOTA STATE ARTS BOARD

SCSC South Central Service Cooperative

Quality Through Cooperation Since 1976