New moon What is it and why we honor it?

- The new moon is the time to reflect and cleanse your energy. It is a time to set your intentions for what you wish to attract this lunar cycle. Every intention set requires action and energy from your part as well. The new moon energy is there to support you in manifesting what you want. The new moon is a time to allow new ideas and energy to flow with you. It is a time to honor new beginnings, and the turning over of a cycle. Think of these intentions as seeds you are planting for this lunar cycle. Use this time to rest, reflect, and plant what you will grow just as your ancestors across many cultures did while there was little light in the night sky for them to use.

The Sacred Meaning of the Moon

Over the centuries, the Moon has played a significant role in different cultures and traditions.

The Moon moves quickly through the Zodiac, spending about two and a half days in each sign.

It passes through all twelve signs in about 28 days.

Some nights, at the time of the Full Moon, we admire its beauty and grandeur.

Other nights, when it starts to fade, it becomes thin and inconspicuous, so different from the peak of its fullness and magical glory.

Ever-changing lunar cycles remind us of the cyclical nature of life itself.

The Moon's physical power is demonstrated by the phenomenon of ocean tides, which are generated by the moon's gravitational pull.

It's a well-known fact that the human body consists of nearly 60% of water on average. It only proves that the moon has the power to influence our physical and mental states, just as it influences ocean tides.

The profound connection between Moon cycles and human states of being has been observed throughout the centuries.

Moon Phases and Their Meanings

The Moon constantly passes through the cycle of growth and decline, and the phases of the Moon are different parts of this never-ending cycle.

They are much more than just astronomical phenomena; they have a deep symbolic meaning. Understanding each stage of the Moon cycle can help guide us on our journey of personal growth and development.

The full Lunar cycle consists of 8 phases:

- New Moon
- Waxing Crescent
- First Quarter
- Waxing Gibbous
- Full Moon
- Waning Gibbous
- Third Quarter
- Waning Crescent

To simplify things, it's recommended to work with two main phases of the Moon: New Moon and Full Moon.

More New Moon Magic to Try!

There are so many enchanting things to try on the New Moon! Here's MORE ideas:

- Smudging your house and sacred space
- Burn different kinds of incense for different intentions

- Create a new divination tool like an Osteomancy Set (Throwing Bones Set)
- Sweep your house and sacred space with a magical broom
- Try different kinds of spiritual and spell baths
- Cleanse, Charge and Refresh Your Altar
- Start Working with a New Goddess or God

<https://otherworldlyoracle.com/new-moon-magic/>

Something else to try: if you want to manifest an intention by the Full Moon, start your ritual and put out your intentions on the New Moon. Feed your ritual/spell with more energy each day over the New and Waxing Moon until the Full Moon OR until your intention manifests!

The New Moon is the start of a new lunar cycle. Therefore, the energy from the last 28 days (the last lunar cycle) is cleared and new FRESH energy is beginning to flow in. This is a time to take advantage of the New Moon's magic in various ways. Cleansing rituals are one of our top things to do on the New Moon. Why not head into a new lunar cycle with a fresh aura and purified sacred space? In addition to cleansing rituals, manifest new opportunities starting your magic on the New Moon. New opportunities for jobs, friends, love, travel, etc.

New Moon Cleansing Bath Ritual

My favorite thing to do for a new lunar cycle is a cleansing New Moon bath ritual. There are so many ways to take a spiritual cleansing bath, and so many things to include. But if you're unsure or want to try out something new, here's our New Moon Cleansing Bath Ritual to try.

What You'll Need:

- A clean bathtub
- Handful of flower petals
- Himalayan Pink Salt (one tablespoon)
- Lemon Juice (1/4 cup)
- Relaxing music, candles, incense of your choice (optional)

How to Take a New Moon Cleansing Bath:

1. Prepare the space. Cleanse the area by smudging or by sound (or whatever method you use to cleanse sacred space).
2. Turn on relaxing music, light some candles, dim the lights and light incense, if you choose.
3. Run the water at the temperature you like.
4. Add the flower petals, salt and lemon juice. Allow it to steep in the tub as the water runs.
5. When you're ready, disrobe and hop in the tub.
6. Relax, lean back, close your eyes and envision your aura as white light radiating from your body and all around you.
7. Now, with your mind's eye, see any negative energy residue in your aura as gray or black spots. Wash away those spots gently with the water. Take your time doing this.
8. Next, you'll want to pour the water over your head. You can either submerge yourself under the water OR use a cup and pour it completely over your head.
9. As you do this, say, "with this water, I cleanse away all negativity. I invite peace and positivity to wash over and fill me."
10. Repeat this prayer at least three times and up to thirteen times. Let the words take on an existence of their own. Visualize yourself being washed clean from all negative influences.
11. Once you feel you've been purified, emerge from the tub. Towel off from head to toe – don't wipe! Pat yourself dry!
12. Clean out your tub completely and go about your new lunar cycle

We can be serious and determined, and we can uncover everything we need to. This helps us solve problems that have been vexing us, and transform in beneficial ways that empower us.

Scorpio loves empowerment, so we can pursue opportunities that give us more power and control in our lives. The transformations we make now can help us become more dedicated to our passions, to come back from defeat, and to feel stronger and bolder.

Scorpio is the sign of sharing as well as other people's money, so Scorpio new moons can be excellent for mutually-beneficial projects and ventures, business and financial partnerships, and investments involving other people. We can focus on our legacies as well.

Scorpio rules the darker side of life, and we can be more comfortable with this with the Scorpio new moon. We can venture into the taboo, and explore decay and destruction. We find things fascinating and want to know more about them instead of getting scared by them. This makes Scorpio one of the science rulers (along with Aquarius), so we can also see some important scientific news.

The SCORPIO is all about TRANSFORMATION, who you are becoming in relationship to life and the journey of embodying your true authentic power.

This is an opportunity to WELCOME and honor how you are changing shape

It is Scorpio who companions us on the journey to the underworld as we look at the areas of our life that need our tender love and compassion.

Scorpio follows the sign of Libra and belongs to the Fixed Cross sitting opposite to the sensual earth sign Taurus. Libra initiated a shift toward the dark time, inviting us to consider:

- What do I need to shift relationally in order to come into greater balance?
- Where in my life can I release excess so as to create more inner space, peace and harmony?

- let go of what is no longer serving you.
- find peace and resolution with anything or anyone.

- dive deeper into realms where you're still trying to prove yourself or please others.
- bow to life lessons learned in relationship over these many months of growing.
- celebrate who you are becoming and how you are changing shape.
- slow down, turn inward, and nurture your inner soil.
- cut any excess; release and unburden yourself

This is a potent time for manifesting anything around mystical abilities, sex, love, intimacy, death, transformation, and rebirth.

This sign rules over transformation, death, the occult, and sexuality. Scorpio can be a very intense energy, and this is partly because it's a water sign, so it's ruled by emotions.

It's ruled by Pluto, the planet of transformation, the underworld, and death. This means death in the sense that something comes to an end and transforms into something else (very similar to the Death card in tarot). Scorpio isn't afraid to explore dark or deep things, making it a very psychic and sexual sign that isn't afraid of topics considered taboo.

The new moon in deep Scorpio offers you an opportunity to explore your deepest desires and be curious about how to bring them into the world, no matter how uncomfortable it may be. A fixed water sign, Scorpio invites you to dive into the depths of your subconscious to help excavate your true purpose for being here. Tune into the depths of this Scorpio new moon energy to explore the parts of yourself you often hide and find ways to bring them out into the open.

With the New Moon taking place in this sign, it's a powerful time to put any plans or desires into motion for your life. New Moons represent a new beginning, and on this day (or night) you can tell the universe what you want in regards to theme of that New Moon. In this case, it's Scorpio.

Moon in Scorpio

An emotionally difficult time.

There is increased jealousy,
greediness,
envy and other negative feelings.

The colours of the world turn black and white.

Sexuality and sensuality go up and strong,
powerful emotions run high,
whilst diplomacy and tact
will noticeably decline.

However,
it is a good time for any occupation
which needs intensity and total devotion.

With a new moon in Scorpio, you can work on manifesting a transformation of something in your life or of yourself. Scorpio rules complete transformations, and you can focus on that now. It can be a physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual transformation, and it's deep inside of you.

A Scorpio new moon is also good for manifesting a strong will, determination, and persistence, as well as a more realistic outlook.

Scorpio also rules other people's money, which includes taxes, debts, inheritances, loans, and joint finances, so you can focus on any of that. It's a good new moon to work on business partnerships and ventures as well.

Scorpio is also good for research and investigation, getting to the heart of the matter.

For health manifestation, Scorpio rules the system of elimination and sex organs. And oh yes, Scorpio also rules sex, so if you want a better sex life, try Scorpio!

SCORPIO MYTH

This is an excerpt from Constellation Guide:

"In Greek mythology, the constellation Scorpius was identified with the scorpion that stung Orion, the mythical hunter. The two constellations lie opposite each other in the sky, and Orion is said to be fleeing from the scorpion as it sets just as Scorpius rises.

In one version of the myth, Orion tried to ravish the goddess Artemis and she sent the scorpion to do away with him. In another version, it was the Earth that sent the scorpion after Orion had boasted that he could defeat any wild beast."

Here are some pointers for manifesting with the New Moon in Scorpio:

Write Down What You Want

The key to manifesting is writing down what you would like to have in your life. Typically you can be very specific, and even write it down to the smallest detail. The main idea with this practice is to see it in your mind as if it already exists. By doing this, you step into that energy, which can help bring you closer to making a reality.

Personally, I believe it's important to include the stipulation that what you wish for is for your highest good and greatest benefit. Sometimes there can be an issue in getting exactly what we want, only to realize you didn't really want it or some aspect of it after all. Adding this disclaimer tells the universe that if it isn't for your ultimate benefit, not to bring it into your life.

The key to writing down your manifestations is to write down what you would like in your life as if it already exists. Start with "I am so grateful now that..." and then put down each detail in the present tense. You can end it with a thank you to the universe for bringing these things into your life.

Phrase it Very Carefully

The main thing to consider is the exact phrasing of what you're saying. For example, one word that's commonly used but needs to be treated carefully is the word abundance. This means a lot of something. If you're asking for abundance, what do you want a lot of? How long do you want that abundance to last? Since it's the New Moon in Scorpio, let's say you tell the universe you'd like an abundance of sex. Do you want this to last for the rest of your life? Or is it for a short period of time, after which you can build a schedule that works for you? You can see how asking for an abundance of something could be great for a certain period, but once that desire is fulfilled, you might be ready to turn your attention to something else.

Think About What You Want

This is why it's important to think carefully about what it is that you want in your life. Think about six months from now—what would you like your life to look like? I say this in part because, when you're manifesting with the New Moon, what you ask the universe for could come into your life by the Full Moon in Scorpio, When it comes to the topics listed below, what types of things do you want to have in your life? Where would you like to be on your journey?

Here are some topics to consider that correspond to the New Moon in Scorpio. Keep in mind that the New Moon relates to starting a journey or anything new, so you have a chance to start something new with any of these topics:

- Sex
- Intimacy
- Love
- Transformation
- Psychic Abilities
- The Occult—anything supernatural, mystical or magical
- Intuition
- Taboo
- Death
- Regeneration
- Rebirth
- Life
- Change
- Relationships
- Desire

If you're not sure where to begin, start by journaling, contemplating, and/or meditating. You can start with individual topics if there are a few you want to cover, and see what comes up. A powerful way to do this is to meditate and visualize a day in your ideal life and see what you're doing that day, who you're speaking with, and so on. If what you see truly resonates with you, write it down as if it already exists. If you want to explore some of these topics but aren't sure what's best for you, you can always say something like "I come through transformation easily with an understanding of why it was necessary. All changes come into my life in a way that I can handle physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually."

Again, breathe and allow your mind to take you where it wants to go. Be open to visualizations, messages, or feelings that may arise.
5. The subconscious mind often works through symbols. Be open and curious about anything that comes through to you, understanding that even though it may not make sense at the moment, it may later.

8. Check in with your bowl of water with the paper in it each day to refill with water if needed, touch into the feelings you experienced, and as a reminder to take continued action towards your soul's desires, even when it feels challenging.
9. 7. At the time of the next full moon, bury your paper outside and pour the water on top of it, trusting that you will be guided in your soul's journey.

A SIMPLE New Job Spell for the New Moon

The awesome refreshing magic brought in by a New Moon is great to use when you're looking for a new job. Here's our new moon ritual for a new job:

What You'll Need:

White or silver candle

Candle holder (if needed)

Lighter/matches

Moonstone (one small piece is plenty!)

Knife or pin

Small bag or sachet

How to Cast the New Job Candle Spell:

Cleanse your space per your preference (smudging, sweeping, etc.)

Cleanse your supplies: the candle, moonstone, any candle holders, knife or pin.

Cast a circle (OPTIONAL) and/or pray protection from your guides/ancestors/gods.

Hold the candle up to your mouth and speak your intention to it (i.e. "may this candle's flame, wax and wick act as a conduit to bring me a new job, bringing freedom and prosperity freely. So mote it be.")

Next, take your knife or pin and careful write/carve your intention into the candle wax from bottom to top. This draws something towards you. You can write a specific job OR write the qualities you're looking for in a new job. Symbols and runes are also great to include!

Light the candle and place it in its holder, if it needs one.

Next take the moonstone and hold it in your hands. Close your eyes and envision the moonstone as a piece of the Moon itself. Say, "may this New Moon's energy flow through this stone freely and bring me a new job for the highest good. So mote it be."

Place the moonstone directly beside the candle to allow their energy to fuel each other.

Once the candle is burned down completely, gather the remaining wax and the moonstone. Put it in a small bag or in your wallet/purse and carry it on you until your new job manifests.

New Moon Rituals

1. Release

To banish means to cast something or someone out of your life. If it's a person, the spell will stop them from seeing you or even thinking about you. Some practitioners use banishing spells to get rid of negative entities in general.

4. Cleanse

Commonly known as honey jars, sweetening spells try to sweeten or mellow someone's attitude toward you. They can be cast on a specific person or situation. A representation of the target is placed in a jar and honey is added on top.

2. Set Your Space

To bind means to control or limit the target's power. The idea of this type of ritual is to symbolically tie up someone or something in order to restrict their actions and prevent them from harming themselves or others. While casting these spells on a person is not advisable, you could cast a binding spells on yourself.

5. Manifest

Feeling safe and protected is the most valuable gift that we have. In ancient times, shamans and healers would help people to cure diseases, remove ailments and feel stronger. These rituals were complemented in many cases with the use of remedies such as food, beverages, cleanses, and more.

3. Meditation

Similar to binding spells, a freezer spell is typically used when we want to silence somebody. We call this 'to freeze someone's words or actions'. The most common is to write down the name of the target and put it in the freezer.

6. Close

To invite good luck is a way to empower ourselves. These spells can open doors by removing fear and increasing our willingness to take risks that lead to success. Attract good fortune by consecrating a lucky amulet such as a coin or a gemstone.

NEW MOON IN SCORPIO

Ceremony/ritual:

- Call in 4 corners/ directions

- Call down the moon

Mother moon I call to you

Tonight your energy is new

Under this new

Give me your power this faithful night
I invoke you into my being and souls
Fill up my vessel and make me whole
I heal and cleanse myself
This new moon my spirit is renewed
Under your silvery light I stand before you in awe and in love
I cherish the gifts sent from above
I welcome growth
I welcome transformation
So mote it be
Amen
Aho

1. What makes me feel trapped? How am I suppressing myself?
2. What is the deeper wound underneath these fears?
3. How can I transmute this energy to work for my highest good?

New moon invocation:

I am restored by sacred cosmic vibration. I am divinely protected. I relinquish the weight of that which no longer serves me. My spirit is awake my path is revealed.

I am open to receive.

Tonight I let go of all the which is blocking me to invite abundance into my life. I welcome transformation. I welcome growth. I welcome abundance. I know what I need and I am ready for it.

Under the darkness of this new moon I allow myself to be reborn and my intention to take root. I believe in my being, my vision and my worth. I set my focus now on my intentions and honour the nurturing process as I let go and allow the abundant creative energy to provide for me. I own my magick and it will guide me this lunar cycle.

lessons

By exploring my subconscious I understand myself better.

My power is my intuition.

I can't ignore my shadows.

My challenges are my lessons.

I get comfortable with discomfort.

Trusting my intuition helps me heal.

Inner work creates a solid foundation.

I face my shadow aspects and my fear with compassion.

Ignoring emotion creates suffering.

My life improves when I face all aspects of myself.
