

Terms & Conditions

By purchasing my services

I have the right to refuse commissions

In cases when the artwork is beyond my capability/style (eg: realism, western cartoon style) and/or when the artwork depicts hate or any hurtful content, I have the right to decline the commission.

Artworks and strictly for personal use unless stated for commercial use

All commissioned works are for personal use only. And can be printed/posted anywhere as long as you don't gain monetary benefits (eg: giveaway, gift, personal items) . Commercial use artworks require additional payments depending which type of artwork they are commissioning.

Editing my works or having other artist/s edit or modify my work is strictly prohibited

Additionally, using my rejected sketches for YCH, base, or future artwork with other artists is not allowed. However, I have the right to use them as reference/concepts for future artwork for other characters.

Rush Commissions are subjected for additional fees

Rush Commissions can take utmost 4 days after the approval of the sketch. Rush commissions will be charged for an additional fee of 80% of the total price.

Payment Upfront is required

Commissions and Commission slots can only be done or reserved once payment has been made. Reservations require at least 50% downpayment to secure the slot. This is to avoid clients who will ghost after reserving a slot.

Revisions are free at Sketching Stage

Multiple revisions are free during the sketching stage but may be charged depending on the amount of revisions and how much details are put or changed.

Revisions are strictly prohibited during the final coloring stage. But if it will be for minor or smaller details, it can be done for free.

Finished Commissions should be posted WITH Credit

All commissioned works can be posted on any of your profiles / videos as long as you put credits on captions/profiles.

All finished commissions will also be posted on my profiles and portfolio. Should there be a situation in which you don't want it to be posted, I will require an additional 50% payment from the total asking amount.

Strictly NO REFUNDS when the sketch has been started

There will be no refunds once the sketch has been started. So please commission me if you are fully committed to this and are capable of paying/waiting for the entire process.

For those who have paid for down payment to reserve a slot, I can only refund 50% of your paid amount.

Turn around time will depend on your slot and level of detail

Turn around time will vary per commission as it will be adjusted on the amount of detail. Please do note that I will be strictly working and focusing on one artwork at a time according to the queue/slots. Delays may happen depending on the amount of additional work for the artwork before yours.

I wish for your patience as once you have commissioned me, you have fully agreed to my Terms and Conditions.

All commissioners are provided with a trello link to see the stage/progress of their commission. Photo updates will be sent via DM/e-mail accordingly.

I can only provide updates during weekdays

I can only work during Monday to Friday as I have IRL matters to fully assess and will need time to rest or I may not be around over the weekends. Please do stay considerate of this.

If your message is urgent (eg. urgent revisions/notes for your commission), please do note it at the beginning of your message.
