

The Bebras Computational Challenge (Berbras) is a competition that gives participants 45 minutes to complete as many computational thinking challenges as possible.

I participated in Bebras in 2022 and achieved an honourable mention award.

