CORUNNA HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

February 27, 2025

Reminder: All applications for Dual Enrollment, CTE, and Early College are due no later than tomorrow. Any questions or for help applying, please see Mrs. Steinacker.

What would make this long winter better? Jumbo Gourmet suckers are back!!!!! Drama will be selling suckers starting tomorrow at $2.00 a pop. You can purchase in Mrs. Lentz's room before or after school or find the nearest drama person throughout the day.

Attention any student that was invited to the MOTT Community College Field Trip: Make sure you have your permission slip turned in. The bus for MOTT leaves tomorrow at 8:00. Report to 1st HR for attendance tomorrow and then we will all meet in the front lobby by the office.

Volleybuff players owe Mrs. Zeeman $15 this week and all coaches owe $10 please. Pay only during Cavs time any day this week. You will NOT receive your t-shirt until you have paid. The Volleybuff game is March 6 at 6:30.

Attention Ladies: There will be a tennis meeting after school in the media center today for all girls interested in playing tennis this Spring.

Next Wednesday during Cavs Time there will be an informational meeting for any 9th -12th grade girl interested in track and field. We will meet in the media center.

Lunch choices today are: General Tso Chicken; Cheese Pizza; Taco Salad; Buffalo Ranch Chicken Panini; Ham & Cheese Flatbread; PB & J; Taco Salad; or Little Italy Wrap.

The middle school swim team had their final home meet of the season last night ending on a high note. The Cavs capsized the Kearsley Hornets by a score of 99 to 61 dominating from start to finish. Isabel Bentler took 1st place in the 200 freestyle swimming to her best time of the season followed by Karsen Rounds in 2nd and Ireland Walat in 3rd. In the 100 IM, Easton Duffield grabbed 1st place followed by Charlee Kim and Victoria Vipperman. In the 50 yard butterfly Charlee Kim raced out to a 1st place finish followed by Easton Duffield and Clayton Schultz. In the 100 freestyle, Emma Timlick continues her impressive week by dropping another 9 seconds to finish 2nd for Corunna. The 200 relay team of Meyer, Kim, Duffield, and Schultz finished 1st. In the 100 yard backstroke Marley Meyer finished 1st followed by Ireland Walat. In the 400 free relay the team of Rounds, Vipperman, Timlick, and Bentler ended the evening with a 1st place finish. The team hopes to keep the momentum moving when they travel to Brandon on Monday.

Lunch choices today are: General Tso Chicken; Cheese Pizza; Taco Salad; Buffalo Ranch Chicken Panini; Ham & Cheese Flatbread; PB & J; Taco Salad; or Little Italy Wrap.