

Subject line: HOWDIE, (X) the art of Email!

What's Up (X),

I recently received your email on how people should find balance and not be gym rats working out hours in the gym trying to be perfect.

You showing both desires/pain is a great way to connect with your audience and build a connection with newer viewers.

Because you are actively helping people and sending out great information, I created an opt-in page for you (Free of charge 😊). By this Opt-in page, you will find and create a larger audience. You can also promote your online coaching.

The Opt-in will reach into a secret part of the brain and will trigger their un-imaginable desire and it will be so strong they can't help but type their email in.

You can find the new Opt-in here.

Let me know what you think of it.

P.S. Don't worry about the looks, check its personality and what's being said.

Stay well,

Muhammed N.
