

AUTHOR INSTRUCTIONS

- Please check that your journal article meets the criteria on our webpage Aim and Scope of the Research Data and Reports. Please also see our FAQ page for more details.
- Please fill in the template below. Note that we can only consider articles submitted using this template. Please refer to our Guide for authors for the additional help in preparing the manuscript.
- Instructions are given in blue italics in the template.
- This template is applicable for submitting journal articles. Please refer to the specific instructions carefully to submit the journal articles.
- Length of paper: Papers should not exceed 10000 words and a maximum of 20 Tables and Figures. Multi-part figures are considered as single Figure.
- Before submitting your journal article, please delete this page as well as all instructional text in blue in this template.

Article Title [Provide Concise and Informative Title]

A.B. Author^{1*}, C.D. Author², and E.F. Author³

Affiliation

[Please list all authors (first name(s) - last name) and mark the corresponding author with *.

For affiliation, please include the full postal address of each author's institution. Use of your institutional email address is preferred. If available, include the 16-digit ORCID of the author (s)].

Abstract

[Abstract should be 150-200 words which should be divided into purpose (stating the main purposes and research question), methods, results and conclusion.]

Keywords: [Include 4-6 keywords, separated by semi-colons. Please do not repeat words used in your title.]

1 Introduction

[Please give a description of the background of the study and the research significance. For example, briefly include information on the theoretical or methodological background or research gap based on a detailed literature study. Include the objective of the study based on the literature survey].

2 Experimental Investigation [Or Experimental Procedure]

[This section describes how you acquired the data or conducted the study. Provide a complete description of the experimental design, experimental/analytical investigation, materials and methods used to acquire the data or results. It is important that this section is as comprehensive as possible. There is no character limit, and you may use illustrative figures or tables].

2.1 Materials

[Describe the materials used for the study]

3 Results and Discussion

[This section is applicable for submitting journal articles. Describe in detail the results of experimental/analytical investigation along with interpretations and discussions. Include Tables and Figures].

3.1 Test Results

[The results of the particular experiment and interpretation of the test results are described in this section. Include tables and figures of the test].

4 Conclusions

[This section is applicable for submitting journal articles. Describe the main conclusions from the study as well as recommendations for the future study].

CRedit Author Statement

[Please outline the contributions of each co-author in terms of conceptualization, methodology, software, validation, formal analysis, investigation, resources, data curation, writing-original draft, Writing-Review and editing, data presentation, leading of the project and funding acquisition].

Acknowledgments

[In this section, include any funding sources with project No. and mention all contributors who do not meet the criteria for authorship. If no funding has been provided for the research, please include the following sentence:

This research did not receive any specific grant from funding agencies in the public, commercial, or not-for-profit sectors.]

Declaration of Competing Interests

[Please include an appropriate statement mentioning about the competing interests of the author and co-authors.]
