Minor in Ministry Administration
HBI University

Course Duration: 3 years

Credit Hours: 105

Program Description

The Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Arts in Public Administration at HBIU University is designed to develop scholars and professionals who are equipped to lead and implement effective public policies, governance strategies, and administrative innovations. This program provides an in-depth exploration of public sector management, policy analysis, organizational leadership, and ethical decision-making in government and nonprofit institutions. By integrating both theoretical knowledge and practical applications, graduates will be prepared to contribute to academia, public service, consulting, and international development, driving meaningful change in the field of public administration.

The Minor in Ministry Administration specialization offers a unique focus on leadership and management within faith-based organizations, equipping students with the knowledge and skills necessary to oversee ministry operations effectively. This specialization explores topics such as church governance, financial stewardship in religious institutions, nonprofit leadership, and ethical decision-making in ministry settings. By understanding the complexities of faith-based administration, graduates will be prepared to lead religious organizations, community outreach programs, and faith-driven social services with integrity and strategic vision.
