

Hall Green Arts Surgery

Ort Cafe 4th May 2012

Dan Haywood, Grace Mahar, Prue Evans, Josie Reichert, Darren Cannan, Clare Bell, Laura Yates, Tom Jones, Roxie Collins, Marcella Erskine

Ideas and Comments (collected from Postits and comments)

An Art exhibition of some local artists curated around a theme including multi-media works creating an intended ambience.

Good sharing info 'drop-in' seems to work.

Forums can usefully cross city boundaries

Interested in linking up on drawing projects

Arts and Health - what connection are we making?

Pitmaston project possibilities? Two people today from HG possibly interested

Torch relay - plans for Calthorpe Park and Sparkbrook/Farm Rd progressing

People to contact - Poetry at Ort? Cannon Poets - Sammy-Jo Hunt, Chris Akers

Interested in Poetry projects in prisons

Discussion about writers and illustration networks in Birmingham and across world - children's illustrated book society self-sustaining supported.

OK Go!, bike type sculpture

Early years awards, awards generally?

Play more and small encounters - make contact with

I liked the Ort venue meeting, and the relaxed table mix, but not sure we're reaching the school and neighbourhood communities yet.

Actions

Contact Cannon Poets, others regarding Ort Cafe poetry, keep searching stuff out

Further discuss possibility of HGA exhibition later this year - Drum to host?

Set up next surgery for week starting 9th July at KGC.

Promote/ continue planning olympic torch relay events, continue work in partnerships for Calthorpe Park, Kings Heath, Farm and Sparkhill Park on 'Field for the Olympics' - cross fingers for funding by 22nd May.

Make contacts in Pitmaston area re. future surgery and possible event.

Link for Field for the Olympics