Aro & Ace Viktor & Jayce Week

About

The purpose of this event is to celebrate and explore the many and varied ways that ace and aro people experience and express their love and sexuality through the lense of both Jayvik and/or Vikjayce. We deserve good representation in our favorite characters!

Rules

1) MUST BE THIS OLD TO RIDE!

- a) This event is strictly an 18+ event. We understand that there are minors in the aro/ace community, however, as the mods are over 18, this event is also geared towards adults over the age of 18 and may include adult-themed works. That said, please do not participate in this event if you are under the age of 18.

2) TAG YOUR WORKS!

- a) To respect the comfort levels of those within the community who may be sex repulsed, or would prefer to not see NSFW work for other reasons, there will be two separate tags for all created works: #aavjweekSFW & #aavjweekNSFW. There will also be two collections on AO3: AAVJ Week SFW & AAVJ Week NSFW. Please help us keep this event uplifting, encouraging, and community conscious by keeping all NSFW content within the AAVJ Week NSFW tag and collection, only, across all platforms.
  - i) For NSFW work, please be sure to also include any relevant and appropriate content warnings. If you're wondering whether or not you should include a tag, err on the side of caution and include it, or reach out to a mod and we'll help determine if it should.

3) DON'T OPEN THE BAG UNLESS YOU WANT TO SEE THE DOVE!

- a) This event is "Dead Dove" friendly. This means that there may be works created that include or are exclusively about topics such as: suicidal thoughts or ideations, self harm, non- or dubious-consent, kinks, etc. The mods believe in anti-censorship and welcome any works that explore heavier themes. However, we do require for this event that:

- b) All works including or about “Dead Dove” content be tagged as such, with #deaddove or #deaddovedonoteat being the first tag and followed by the appropriate explanatory tags and any other tags you want to include.
  - i) EG, if your work includes or centers around dealing with suicidal thoughts, you would need to tag it thus: #deaddove, #suicidalthoughts, #aavjweekSFW. If you’re uncertain if your work should have the “Dead Dove” tag, err on the side of yes, or reach out to a mod to check.
- c) All Dead Dove works posted to social media must have a “read more”, “under the cut”, or other “teaser” method of posting. The tags should be included above the cut.

4) STUCK ON AN IDEA? USE A PROMPT!

- a) The mods have created a list of prompts split in themes tailored to each day for you to use as an inspiration list for your works. Please see the #aavjweekprompts list and check out the themes of each day of the event!
  - i) By the way...you are not required to use a prompt to participate! If you feel inspired, create and post on any day you like. Just be sure to use the tags so your work is included.
  - ii) Also, we know it can be fun to create a work for every day of the event, but don’t stress yourself out! This is a free, for fun, fan run event that’s meant to encourage the celebration of aro and ace identities using our favorite characters. If you can only do one prompt for one day, we’re still thrilled to have you!

5) NO TIME? NO PROBLEM!

- a) As there are a lot of incredibly fun fan events happening this year, we’re going to be leaving the AAVJ Week collection open indefinitely! Feel free to use any of the prompts to create a work and post it using the tags any time after October 19th.

Dead Dove Update

❖ DON'T OPEN THE BAG UNLESS YOU WANT TO SEE THE DOVE! - Updated 30th June 2025

- Due to a great question we received regarding “Dead Dove” content, and our goal to maintain anti-censorship while keeping this event inclusive for all, we’ve updated our rule for posting Dead Dove works. It’s absolutely still allowed, BUT:

- But what goes in the bag?

- Glad you asked! Let’s discuss:
  - First, the history: the Dead Dove: Do Not Eat tag is not a “This fic is about “dark” themes” tag. It’s a traffic sign used to inform the reader that the tags following it will be explicitly written about in the fic, so it can be used on all types of fics. Over time, though, it’s come to be a shorthand way of saying that a fic tagged with it explores “dark” themes. Due to the nature of “dark” themes being subjective, and to avoid confusion or misunderstandings, we’ve come up with a list of topics that MUST:
    - ◆ be tagged with #deaddovedonoteat, #deaddove, or #dddne AND
    - ◆ the appropriate tag from the below list
    - ◆ AND utilize a “teaser” method of posting. The tags must be included above the teaser.
- Any fics with the below subjects that are not tagged and teased will be temporarily removed from the AAVJ Week collection with a request to the creator to repost with the tag and teaser. This list is not exhaustive and we reserve the right to add to it at any time. If you have questions regarding this please don’t hesitate to reach out!
