

Aather Uniforms

The uniforms below were built by pulling suggestions from Cassandra's game! Most of them are fairly faithful, with few alterations/additions/combinations or, well, differences based on the liberal interpretation of dreamselfies.

Heroes will arrive in the new realm wearing their new uniforms (~magically~). Their old uniforms/other clothes will be found in their new cabins. You may swap out pieces (or combine the two variations) as you please! You will not revert/change clothes when you are called to the Ring, but your outerwear can appear if desired.

The new realm will also encourage further uniform design & customization, but this should be done by hand rather than by quest. Characters can quest for fabric/wool/thread from Personae & knights, but not already-prepared clothing (with the exception of Your Super Special Jacket(TM) canon belongings). Can't sew? Surely there are fashionistas that would like to make use of their skills in exchange for cake.

Customization Guidelines

Clothing customization will be flexible, but must be at least half (prominently) in your team color, accented with neutral colors (black, white, beige, etc) and/or 1-2 smaller pieces in a slightly lighter or darker tone than their team color (not enough to tip it over to the next team color, but enough to create a bit of an accent!) Eg: If you have a white/black shirt, your lower half must be all color, or vice-versa, and your outer coat is highly encouraged to be in your team color. If you're only wearing parts of your uniform (ie: shirt & pants) and neither is in your team color, you are required to have a tie/vest/etc in your team color.

You can also assume that every team has several basic sets of socks & underclothes (of their choice) in their team colours, as well as a pair of shorts and a camisole, and a set of solid team-colored flannel pajamas. Like these :D

Each team has 1 set of outer wear (coat, boots, goggles, mittens, that sort of things), and three sets of basics (sweaters, pants, underwear, etc).
