

Breakout Sessions and Presenters

A Personal Approach to Equity and Humanity

Participants will understand the framework of Cultural Proficiency and engage in personal reflection activities to solidify their commitment to equity.

Presenter: Molly Hollenbeck

Molly Hollenbeck has served in various education leadership positions at both the building and district level. With an unwavering lens on equity, humanity, and instruction, she seeks to intentionally interrupt and disrupt the status quo that for far too long has led to inequitable outcomes. She believes deeply in the benefits of self-awareness and critical reflection as a means to become more culturally proficient.

Position/Organization: Assistant Principal, John F. Kennedy High School

Location: Bloomington, MN

Contact Email: mhollenbeck@isd271.org

Website / Social Media (LinkedIn profile, Facebook, Twitter, etc):

Resources (Links to materials and or websites accessible online):

Presenter: Akram Osman

Akram Osman is currently serving as the Principal of John F. Kennedy High School. Akram believes in the importance of human connections and working towards creating school environments where each person is seen for their humanity first.

Akram is looking forward to presenting at this summit with the goal of leading participants towards an understanding of the framework of cultural proficiency.

Position/Organization: Principal, John F. Kennedy High School

Location: Bloomington, MN

Contact Email: aosman@isd271.org

Website / Social Media (LinkedIn profile, Facebook, Twitter, etc):

Resources (Links to materials and or websites accessible online):

