

PVMHS Student Council Meeting Minutes

3/28/23

Attendees: Paul Drilon, Jessie Duda, Julianne Faye Gabriel, Elijah Swanson, Dante Martiniello, Ms. P.

Agenda

- Grade Level Reports
  - 9th:
  - 10th:
  - 11th: Prom went well! Planning Volleyball Tournament; buses were not bad; security and bag checks; profit pending; Senior Shirts; stepping back to breathe a bit; checking in on concessions from Dodgeball
  - 12th: caps and gowns being organized and are alphabetized; more gowns and caps coming late (will not get alphabetized); list being generated to compare names and orders; ~$800 made at Dodgeball Tournament; released info for prom (~$65); tickets sold April 3rd-ish to Break; RSVP form; out of school guest form available; Principal Randall and Mr. Bedard are handling fundraising for buses (~$14k); Prom is 5/31; getting ready to plan Senior Week-possible form?
- Student Advisory Council
  - Next meeting with School Committee is 4/11
    - There are two water filtration stations available for installation
      - B House by Dean
      - Main Street
- Old Business
  - Keep Grade Level advisors in the loop at all times
  - Art Club bulletin board project to redo, ask Youth Advisory Council (Community Service Club)
    - International Pride board
      - Follow up on
  - Charity events
    - Bake sale once a month on Fridays?
    - Donations for charity
      - Citizen Inn
      - HAWC
      - North Shore Animal Shelter
      - Haven of Hunger
      - Boston Children's/Lahey (specific floor/ward)
      - No Child Goes Hungry
    - Work with other classes-CTE
    - Work together and split funds

■ Movie Month

- Fridays are different genres
  - Music between classes
  - Promote the sports that do not get as much recognition
  - Promote arts events as much as possible in announcements
  - Improve announcement communication?
  - Use hallway T.V.s more for updates and announcements
  - Bathrooms–long-term
  - Bike racks need updating–long-term
- New Business
  - Leak in Mr. Picanco's room
- Next meeting: Tuesday, April 11, at 2 p.m.