

Layer 2 is a protocol built on top of an existing blockchain. The purpose is to improve transaction speed and scalability of the underlying blockchain.