Nicholas Bowling Testimony

I grew up in Church, but instead of knowing JESUS, I only knew religion. This led me to live a very hypocritical lifestyle. By the time I was in college, from the outside looking in, it seemed like I had everything together in my life. I had joined the military and was getting paid to go to college. I was studying to become a financial planner and expected to make a six figure income shortly after completing my degree. I had joined a fraternity and had access to all the alcohol, drugs and girls that I desired. In spite of all of that, on the inside I was broken, depressed, and empty as I searched through the world for something to satisfy my void.

I radically encountered GOD in a rock bottom moment, as I was facing a felony charge, going through a bad breakup, and as my dad was rushed to the emergency room with unknown issues. As a result, everything in my life changed from the inside-out. Instead of pursuing my own life plans, GOD rerouted my life into full-time Ministry. After joining a local Church, I began to voluntarily serve for several years. Over time, that led into a Church staff position. I've now had the opportunity to wear many hats in the body of CHRIST including: administration, overseeing media, sound, & lights, Outreach Ministry Director, prison Ministry, Worship Leader, Associate Pastor, Evangelist, and many other assignments that have arisen within Ministry. GOD has expanded HIS reach through the Ministry, as HE's sent us out to Preach the Gospel and equip other Churches throughout the nations of the world.

GOD has given me a beautiful wife named Abigail, and blessed us with two Lovely children named Nora and Will. Abigail is currently on staff at our Church as the Worship Pastor. Our hearts desire is to Love GOD, Love others, and walk as JESUS walked.

Nicholas Bowling Information

A child of GOD encouraging others to walk as JESUS walked.

Nicholas Bowling is an American Youtuber and Christian Evangelist known for street Preaching the Christian Bible about its traditional teachings about sinful acts. Bowling is also known to do public interviews whilst doing these Preachings in public.

History

Bowling started making Christian centered topic videos on YouTube, with him street Preaching to other people. He eventually started to go pride month celebration festivals across the United States, Preaching his ideals to the individuals there, as he believes that queer people are sinful.

He was met with controversy, not on Youtube, but at the festivals themselves. Those sparks of controversies and videos helped him gain subscribers, and viewers. Today, his content has remained unchanged.

Content

Nicholas Bowling primarily produces videos and content praising the Christian religion, its ideals, and its teachings. Bowling attempts to convert others to his religion, usually attending certain public rallies, festivals, gatherings, and more to spread his religious beliefs.

Nicholas Bowling regularly street-Preaches using a microphone inside of pride month celebration festivals. As he believes that queer people are sinful. And also at sidewalks, areas within a university college or a campus, and generally areas where he can publicly talk with people about Christianity. Bowling also has multiple cameramen filming him and the people he encounters.

Personal life

Nicholas Bowling grew up in a religious setting, with some of his paternal great-uncles being Catholic priest, and some of his paternal great-aunts being Catholic nuns. His maternal side was also heavily influenced by Catholicism.

Despite growing up in a religious setting, he claims he only knew about the Christian religion itself, instead of truly believing JESUS CHRIST. Bowling would usually wake up, immediately obtaining a negative mindset. According to him, this mindset led him to a "hypocritical lifestyle".

By the seventh grade, Bowling had already drank alcohol, smoked, and was introduced to pornography. As he got older, and into highschool, he became "very rebellious, and dishonoring towards [his] parents, as well as having lied a ton,"

Immediately after he graduated highschool he obtained a fake ID, began drinking at local bars, was influenced to do illegal drugs, and he didn't feel motivated to reside in his hometown. To get away from his hometown, he applied and successfully joined the American military. It is also notable that Bowling couldn't apply to university because of finances.

Eventually, when he had the money to do so, Nicholas Bowling applied to university and was being paid. He was presumably studying at Western Kentucky University[7]. Bowling was expected to make a six-figure income by the time he finished university. During this time, he was also a part of a fraternity.

It was also during this time that Bowling claimed to have had access to all "the alcohol, drugs and girls that [he] desired." However, Nicholas Bowling had anxiety, depression, and mental issues because of this. He even became suicidal.

Bowling's condition got worse, as he had gotten a call stating his father had a seizure, resulting with him going to the Emergency Room. It got even worse whenever he got a felony charge at age 21 for "receiving stolen property worth over $500." Eventually, Nicholas Bowling cried inside of his shower. Not only did he cry there, but he also cried at a house party, recounting that he "broke into tears," and that he had to choose between suicide or GOD.

After these events, Bowling got motivated to improve "[his] relationship with GOD," by visiting Church Nicholas Bowling improved on himself and his life, with him meeting a woman named Abigail. Abigail and Nicholas married, and the both currently have two children named Nora and Will.
