SUGAR

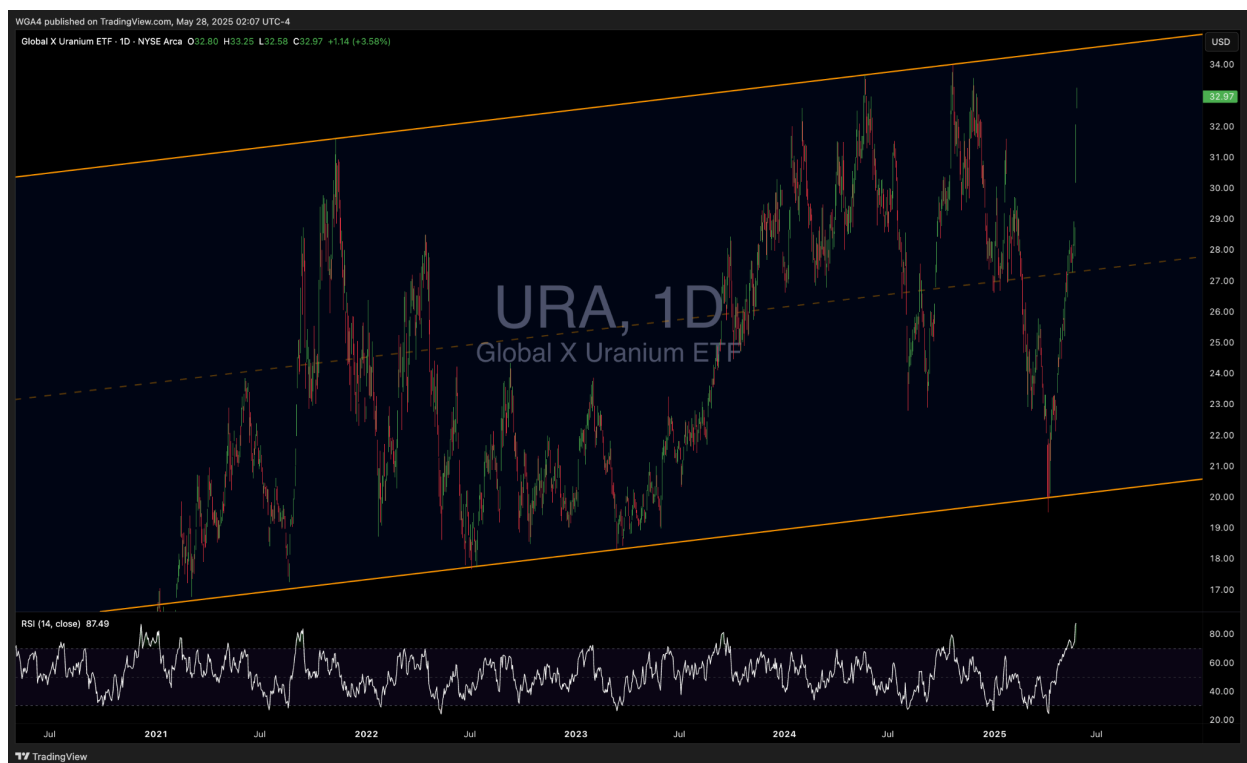

Sugar still looks good for accumulation; bullish divergence; at long term support

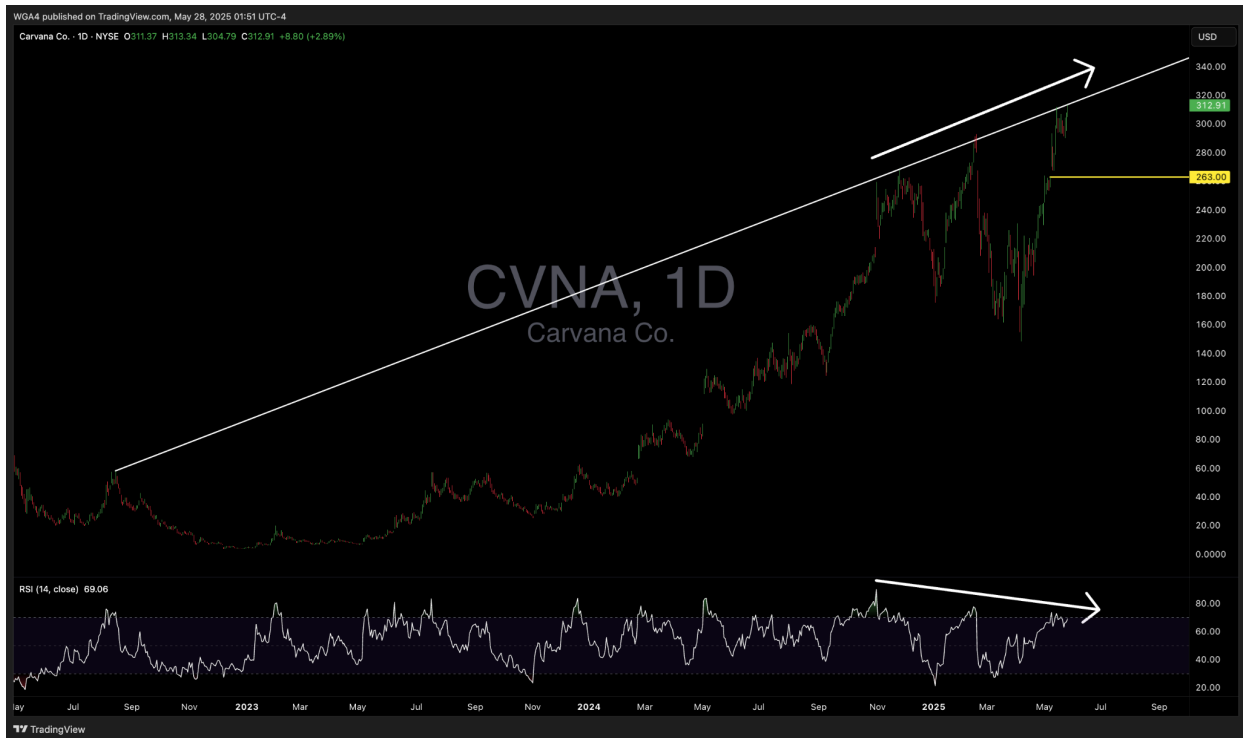

URA GLOBAL X URANIUM ETF

Uranium stocks have gone vertical; wildly overbought RSI; nearing the top of the parallel

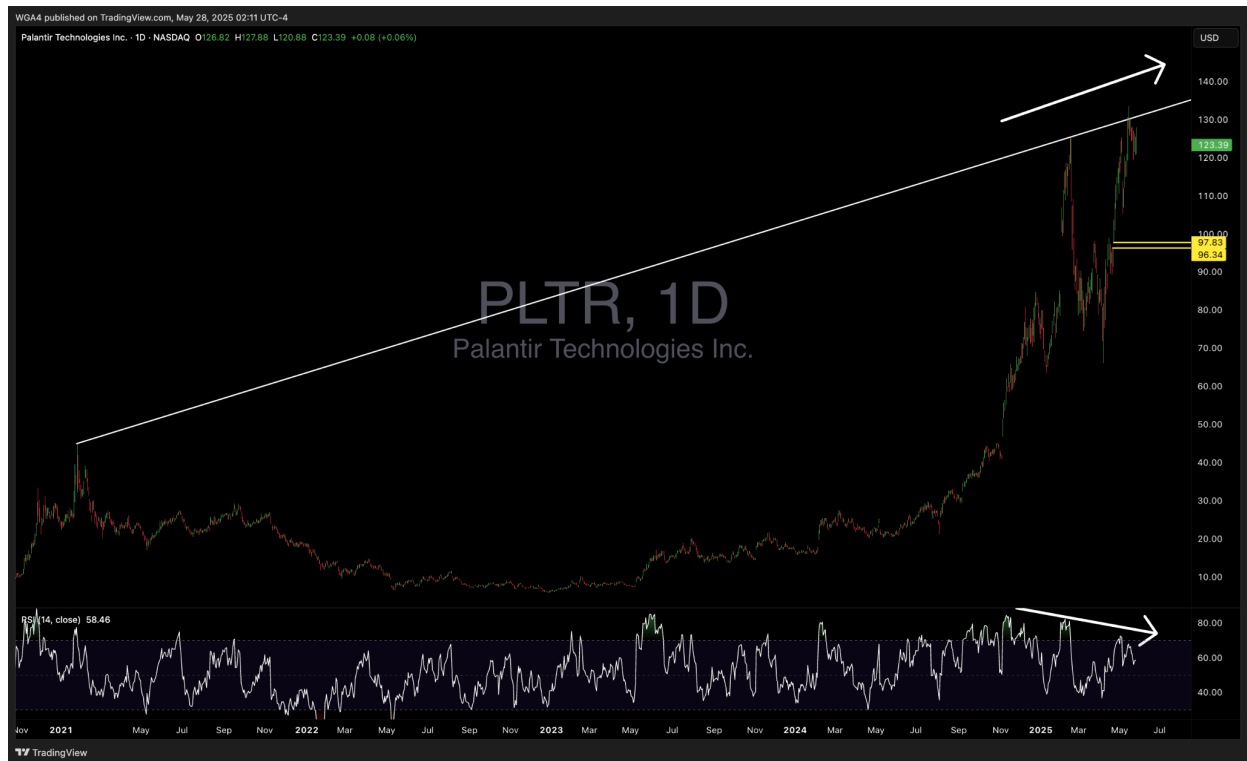

CVNA CARVANA

Another local high and another lower print on RSI; gap fill below at $263; looking tired

PLTR PALANTIR

Chart is quite similar to CVNA; the retail favorites look over extended and running out of steam

Strategy Performance reflects the gross returns (no performance or management fees) of an Interactive Brokers account (ending in 8734), managed solely by Walter Arader from January 1, 2025, to the date of this communication. Performance data of the Interactive Brokers account reflects actual results with supporting records available upon request. Arader LP, a hedge fund set to begin trading on July 1, 2025, will employ the same investment strategy under the sole management of Walter Arader. Performance of the Interactive Brokers account may differ materially from Arader LP's future results due to factors including, but not limited to management and performance fees, leverage, liquidity, portfolio size, and hedge fund regulations. Arader LP's returns will be net of fees, which will reduce returns compared to the gross performance shown. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The strategy involves significant risks, including the potential loss of principal, due to factors such as but not limited to market volatility, adverse market conditions, leverage, and concentrated investments. This communication is made pursuant to Rule 506(c) of Regulation D. Arader LP will be available only to accredited investors and will take reasonable steps to verify investor status prior to accepting investments. Investments in Arader LP are currently being accepted and trading will commence on July 1, 2025.*
