Payment Process

Payments will be processed through CashApp or Venmo. If you are outside of the United States, I do also take PayPal, but due to issues with my bank it is a more complicated process than using the previous two methods, and so if possible the first two are preferred.

Half of the payment will be paid up front and the other half when the piece is complete.

A watermark will be used for updates and WIPs.

The final, un-watermarked product will only be delivered once I have received payment in full.

Refunds will only be given if I determine I am unable to complete a commission, and under no other circumstances.

Commission Process

Standard Commission

At any given time I will have 2 slots available, which are filled on a first-come-first-served basis. If interested, please reach out to sunnygrassy@gmail.com. If I am currently available for commissions, I will direct you to this Terms of Service page, which you must read to completion and accept via email (or whatever messaging systems you initially reached out to me in).

Following that, we will discuss what you would like for your piece. This will primarily be done via email, but methods like Twitter DMs or Discord messages may be arranged if discussed. Please provide any details about your character(s), including sex/gender, skin color, hair color, hair texture, notable facial features, height, etc. Any reference images you can provide are also welcome!

Then, describe what you'd like the character to be doing. This can either be in writing or via reference image. Please note, depending on the complexity of the given posing, as well as any additional characters involved, pricing and timeframe may vary. If your commission is accepted, I will then ask you to pay half of the final price at this point.

When I am half-way through the piece, I will send you a work-in-progress sketch and ask if you would like any major changes. At this stage, changes will be free. Once the piece is complete, I will send you a watermarked version for your approval. If you are satisfied with it, you will pay me the second half of the final price and, upon receiving it, I will deliver your final, un-watermarked piece, in the .png format unless otherwise requested. If you are not satisfied with it, you may request one major change for an additional 10% of the final price. (The exception to this is skintone adjustments, which I will provide completely free until the desired tone is achieved)

Expression Sheet

The process for an Expression Sheet commission is similar to the standard commission. At any given time I will have 1 slot available, which are filled on a first-come-first-served basis. If interested, please reach out to sunnygrassy@gmail.com, and you will be directed to this Terms of Service page if I am taking commissions.

For an expression sheet, after sending either an image reference or describing your character's appearance, you'll describe the three expressions you'd like for them. These can range from broad descriptions like "one happy, one sad, and one angry" to detailed descriptions such as "one with serene contentment looking up at the sky, one of exhausted despair with their gaze dragged to the floor, and one looking directly at the viewer with unbridled rage that has finally snapped."

Once the three kinds of expressions are established, I will ask you to pay half of the final price at this point. Upon completing the piece, I will send over a watermarked version for your approval. If you're satisfied with the piece, you will pay me the second half of the final price at this point. Upon receiving the second payment, I will deliver your final, un-watermarked piece, in the .png format unless otherwise requested. If you are not satisfied with it, you may request one major change for free, and any subsequent changes will be an additional 10% of the final price for each change. (Similarly to the standard commissions, the exception to this is skin tones, which can be adjusted as many times as needed.)

Time Frame and Refund Policy

Commissions should be expected to be complete within two months, though I may complete it before that time has passed. If after two months I still have not completed your piece, I will reach out to you and we will discuss an updated timeframe.

Only if I am certain that I will be completely unable to finish your piece will I issue you a full refund, and under no other circumstances.

Legal Information (The Important Bit)

All rights to the art I create, including commissions, belong exclusively to me. You may neither sell nor exchange my art in any form, physical or digital, print or NFT, under any circumstances unless you have my express written permission.

In addition, any art I create is my own. I retain all rights to use and monetize my art in any way I choose. This includes, but is not limited to, the sale of prints, online sales, marketing, published materials, or any other merchandise.

I reserve the right to decline any commission for any or no stated reason.

If you receive a commission from me, you may not use it for any Generative A.I. purposes under any circumstances.

By accepting these Terms of Service, you agree:

- You will pay the full price of a completed commission
- Not to resell any of my work
- Not to use any of my work for Generative A.I. purposes

Thank you for considering commissioning me! If you agree to these terms, please respond via email/the messaging system with the confirmation phrase “Life could be a dream, sweetheart” at the top line. I look forward to working with you!
