

NexisUni

Nexis Uni provides the full text of more than 15,000 news, business, and legal sources.

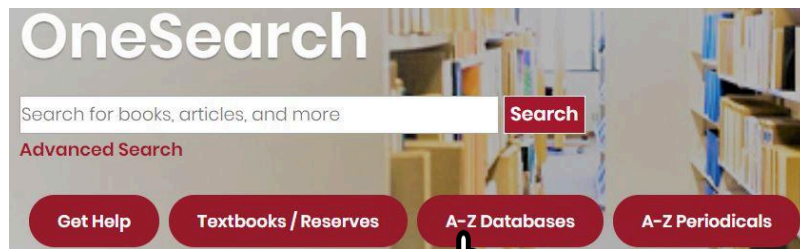

News sources include: current and back issues of local, regional, national, and international newspapers in 24 languages.

Business sources include: information on more than 80 million U.S. and international companies and more than 75 million executives, including SEC filings and analyst reports for market and industry information.

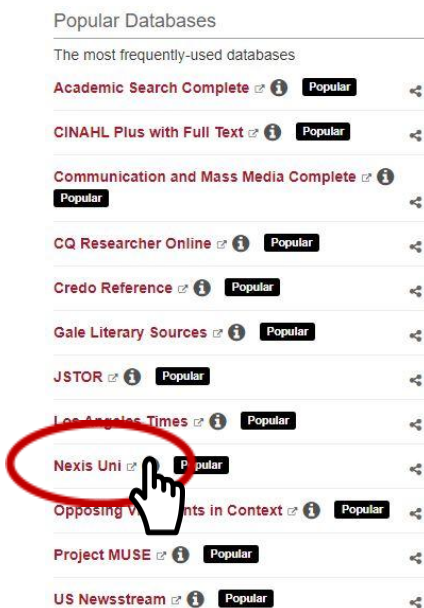

Legal sources include: law reviews and journals; federal and state court cases and statutes back to 1789, including U.S. Supreme Court decisions back to 1790, with validation from Shepard's® Citations Service.

1) Go to the Luria Library website: <http://www.sbcc.edu/library/>

2) Click A-Z Databases:

3) Select Nexis Uni under Popular Databases:

Tips:

Nexis Uni has a Help menu located at the top right of the page and a Tips link under the main search box with frequently asked questions.

Publications in Nexis Uni include international and non-English sources.

Use the limits to the left of your results list to narrow by date, location, source type, language, subject, and more.

4) Type your search terms in the box:

5) OR choose your area of interest:

Need more help? Ask a librarian library@sbcc.edu