

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: March 27, 2026

Introduction

This Privacy Policy describes how Bulk OF Video Downloader ("we", "our", or "the Extension") handles information when you use our browser extension.

Information We Collect

Information Stored Locally

User Preferences: Settings and preferences you configure within the extension are stored locally on your device using Chrome's storage API.

Selection History: Your video selections during a session are stored temporarily in memory and cleared when you close the extension.

Information We Do Not Collect

- We do not collect personal identification information
- We do not track your browsing history
- We do not access or store your passwords or sensitive data
- We do not collect or transmit any data to external servers without your explicit action

How We Use Information

The locally stored information is used solely to:

- Remember your preferences between sessions
- Provide the core functionality of video browsing and downloading

Data Security

All data is stored locally on your device using Chrome's built-in secure storage mechanisms. We do not transmit your personal data to external servers.

Your Rights

You can:

- Clear all extension data by removing the extension from Chrome
- Review stored data through Chrome's extension settings
- Disable the extension at any time

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page and updating the "Last Updated" date.
