OCEANSIDE HIGH SCHOOL COMMUNITY SERVICE LOG

Community Service is an opportunity for students to perform unpaid work or give assistance to or through an organization. 50 hours of community service are required to graduate from OHS. This form must be used to keep track of hours and services performed. All services must receive prior approval from an advisor and all services must be performed under the supervision of an adult.   Parental and family supervision and/or authorization of community service hours are not permitted. Co-curricular activities do not count towards graduation requirements for community service hours. (NHS, Student Council, Key Club, etc)
