Rights and The People Speak

Your monologue for The People Speak is about human rights; it may state those rights outright, or they may be hidden. Your monologue may be about many rights, or just one. Pick the one you feel is most important and write it below the text “right which is the basis of the ideas in my monologue.”

Activist who originally spoke my monologue:

Right which is the basis of the ideas in my monologue:

Just as you would in an essay, now you need to explain why I should believe that the right you wrote above is the basis of the ideas in your monologue. Convince me by using quotes from your monologue and explaining them.
