Q&A with Dr. Bales

Dr. Bales

- Last days of the school year!
- Question: Dress Code: since the District dress code was implemented a few years ago, there are many new principals who are creating dress codes that are more conservative. Which dress code should be followed?
 - District Cabinet will revisit dress code enforcement
- Question: Are any state testing results posted for high schools?
 - AZS School Report Cards on AZ DOE website
 - Comprehensive data, including if students attended all year vs. part year
 - Followup: Does the state testing do school ACT average as well?
 - We think so
- Question: Holding children back in middle school?
 - Not a regular practice, but will sometime have discussion in kindergarten about hold back; otherwise on case by case basis
- Question: Not all elementary school parents knew about District Science Fair, how to improve communication?
 - All schools knew, left it to the schools to determine who participated; go back to school and ask
- Happy Retirement to Dr. Bales and Dr. Jeras!
