

Daniel Seeberg (Loyola High School)

Daniel Seeberg has coached for 37 years. In 2009, his Boys Cross Country team at Loyola placed second in the IHSA State Meet and fourth in the Nike National Meet. They were only 13 points out of first place. His teams have won six Regional championships, and one Sectional championship. Daniel has coached ten All-State Cross Country runners. He has served as Head Cross Country Coach at Loyola since 1991 and has been a Track & Field Coach at Loyola since 1987. He has coached Loyola to 43 Catholic League championships. In Track and Field, he has coached eight athletes to All-State honors. He has been the host and meet Director for several Track and Field Sectionals and Cross Country Regionals. And he has hosted the Catholic League outdoor championships since 1987.

“Students and athletes respect coach Seeberg. Each year he reminds his athletes that life is more than winning a race or running a fast time. It is about the journey you make with your teammates.” “Dan’s biggest attribute is the relationship he has developed with many athletes he has coached.”
