SL: Dr Aria - Are you free this week?

Hello Dr Aria, I found your practice while looking for Dentists in Horchurch. I saw some really good testimonials for your practice, which made me realise you are very trusted in the Dental Industry.

You can't even imagine how rare positive testimonials are nowadays, especially in the dental market, and I know that because I am a marketer who mainly operates from your niche.

I have one last unoccupied slot for marketing, to take on one more business to help achieve your next business goals, like hitting a designated monthly revenue, gaining more attention (I was able to help one of my last clients grow their social media by 359% within 4 weeks) or pulling more ££ from your current clients.

For this, I am running a risk-free, money-back guarantee offer, in which I help you with your marketing - fully refundable if you are unhappy with the work provided.

I've analyzed 3 top players from your market, like Cannon Street Dental, and I've come up with a bunch of great ideas I could apply to your business AS SOON AS TOMORROW to attract more leads by the end of the month.

Would you be willing to hop on a 30-40 minute call this week to discuss further details of how I could help you?

Many thanks,
Tivey
