

The Blue Hills Before/After School Program

The Blue Hills Before/After School Program is a grant-funded, general tutoring program taking place before and after school in the Library Media Center.

The goal for The Blue Hills Before/After School Program is to support students who need extra help with quality tutoring that compliments a students' academic and vocational day and enhances overall creativity and productivity.

The Blue Hills Before/After School Program supports the development of the whole student in the following ways:

- General academic and vocational homework help
- Study skills and study strategies
- Active listening and reading strategies
- Test taking strategies
- Writing and reading strategies
- Research strategies

The Blue Hills Before/After School Program is run by qualified Blue Hills educators, who understand our students will succeed and work their hardest when they are engaged and motivated in a safe environment.

The philosophy of The Blue Hills Before/After School Program is to contribute to our students' overall growth by providing extra support that promotes the success of all of our students.
