

Director's Report

December 16, 2020

Circulation for October

	2020	2019
Adult Books	201	469
Young Adult Books	2	55
Children's Books	56	132
Magazines	0	138
Books on CD/Playaways	10	116
DVDs	195	275
Toys	15	76
E-books	179	146
	658	1407

The Wi-Fi was used by 60 unique clients in the month of November – with the average number per day being 5. On November 18, there was an above average usage for a Wednesday. Bandwidth usage was 668% higher than the last ten Wednesdays recorded. Through interlibrary loan, we loaned 266 items and received 79 items. We registered three new patrons, with the total number of people registered at 1749.

Collection Development

So far this month, we have added 93 adult books, 5 young adult books, 25 children's books, no audiobook, no DVDs and 31 e-books to the Overdrive collection. We discarded 39 adult book, 3 young adult books, 7 children's books, no audiobook, 9 DVDs, and no magazines.

Book Club

The book club met on December 15 to discuss Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman. We met via Zoom, and will continue to meet that way until the pandemic ends. We will be meeting again on January 19 to discuss Born a Crime by Trevor Noah.

Display

Once again, my Santa Claus collection is on display with a new addition. There are also a few snowmen thrown in to find their home.

Nepal Storytime

Over the past several weeks, I have met with all the children in the second grade of Motherland Academy in Pokara, Nepal. We have read books for World Hello Day, World Peace Day, You're Welcome Day, and National Llama Day. The Glens Falls Chronicle will be running a story about this program.

Respectfully Submitted

Megan Baker – Library Director