- Leadership for Lawyers - Larry Center, founder of Center Leadership Coaching, will share a lifetime of leadership wisdom about the essence of leadership for lawyers. He will demonstrate that during this unprecedented era, leadership – doing the right things – is more important than management – doing things right. Lawyers working in all fields whether government agencies, corporations or law firms, are uniquely qualified to provide leadership for our employers, our clients, and our communities. There is no single route to becoming an admired leader. But there are proven pathways. There are helpful hints. There are tested paradigms. This session will give you a greater appreciation of the character and skills required of leaders and the realization that we can be leaders in all areas of our lives.
