Massachusetts hunters set state record for most deer killed in 2018 February 5, 2019 WWLP.com

... Wildlife officials said there were two important changes in the 2018 season. which include the opening of more than 7,500 acres of Wachusett Reservoir Public Land, and the two-week extension of the archery season..,

Deer hunting continues to thrive in region February 11, 2019 Massachusetts, Worcester Telegram

... Many factors contributed to this past year's hunter success, but the devastation of oak trees by gypsy moths and bad weather during pollination time contributed to a lack of acorns that sent deer wandering significantly farther afield for food, providing more shot opportunities for hunters..,

These articles have been reviewed for relevance and content. Some links to the original article may no longer be active.