

Desk Pets

What is a desk pet?

A desk pet is a concept that I learned from Mrs. Fail and decided to implement in my room in her memory. They are essentially little animal erasers that love to be read to and that kids love to pamper. There are rules and expectations for pet ownership in order to minimize distractions in the classroom.

What is The Pet Shop?

The pet shop is basically a treasure box filled with desk pets, habitats, and accessories.

I think my child's pet is a distraction, what can we do?

I always appreciate these observations. While I love to reward my kiddos for their accomplishments, I don't want to contribute to anything that would distract them from their main job at school which is to learn. If your child's desk pet is a distraction, please let me know and I am happy to board the pet in the pound (my desk) until such a time as I feel the pet will not be a distraction. ;)

I would like to donate items for the pet shop, but I don't know what to get.

Amazon or Dollar Tree gift cards are a great way to contribute. Also, check out our class wishlist. https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/ls/30DUAG3ICBIGF?ref=wl_share
Thank you!

How can my child earn a trip to the pet shop?

Pet Shop Bucks are earned in various ways but are mostly tied to behavior (Critic Coins, compliments from other teachers, etc) and academic success. Stellar achievements on various platforms such as Reflex growth, AR, lessons passed on iReady are also rewarded with Pet Shop Bucks.
