

I am Lillian Dai, a rising freshman at Norman North High School. I have played tennis for about one year. I think sports not only exercise our bodies but also our will powers. believe effective learning and hard work will eventually pay off. I also strongly believe that a person's value is to help others and together we make a better community.