

Highschool DxD - Crawling x Chaos

Chapter 91: Sea Darling

『Yuta Yukimura』

As expected, I was scolded.

A lot.

Sona did not seem to appreciate my gesture very much. Well, not the act of me proposing to her, but more so the act of me doing it in such a way. But the Gacha on the other hand seemed to appreciate it very much.

Rolling Gold Trait Gacha with advantage...

[Mysticism]

[Rare Trait]

Your energy reserves and recovery speeds are beyond the norm. Allowing you to use abilities and spells for longer.

[Meet Cute]

[Uncommon Trait]

As you go about your daily life, you are much more likely to encounter romantic interests in favourable positions.

I think I can confidently say I have enough luck in my love life. And I really needed the leg up on my energy reserves. The moment I confirmed my choice, I nodded in satisfaction at the change. Mysticism lived up to the hype of a Rare trait, giving me a good boost to my Mana and Mana regeneration. Still nowhere close to breaking even with Devil Trigger, but you can't have everything.

"I still can't believe it, why did you do that Yuta!?"

Sona huffed and walked in circles, Serafall, in the meantime, had escaped the situation by saying she had to go and gloat to a not specified individual. But I felt like it was Grayfia. The blush in Sona's face was clear as day, and while I admit I did it rather impatiently, I did not regret my decision one bit. I do not do things I'll regret.

"Why shouldn't I? I want you to be one of my wives, Sona."

She huffed and stomped her foot on the ground while crossing her arms in an attempt to appear indignant, but all it did was make her look cute.

"Why? You already have my sister and Rias, what could you possibly want with me?"

Sona turned her head with a dark look, and it clicked for me.

Inferiority Complex. Serafall always treated Sona like a child, and unlike Rias, she took it more personally, making her be a more competitive person in order to prove herself that she is not inferior to her sister. But what has been happening recently?

She has been nothing but crushed by Rias, in every competition, in every contest. While she remained as she was, Rias got me, a cheat code, and she has been left in the dust. Perhaps that's why she was so aggressively forward with me during our date.

That cannot do, as her boyfriend and future husband, I cannot let her feel inferior to others.

For me, there was no superior or inferior, I wasn't going to rank the girls. It was a useless act. I loved them for who they were. Not who they were in comparison to others.

I got up from my chair and approached Sona with steady steps, and she took steps back, I cornered her and slammed my hand on the wall next to her, putting her in a Kabedon, making her blush a bright red.

"What could I want? I want this cool, composed and elegant yet amicable girl to be mine. Do you think I'm a liar, Sona? I said I wanted you to be my wife because I wanted you to be. I like spending time with you, I like seeing you blush, I want to fluster you more, I want to be with you more. It feels like every day, I see a new face of you and I like it. I want to see more of you and make you my wife. That's what I want with you."

Without hesitation, I spoke with my heart. Sona looked at me with wide eyes.

"I-"

"Or should I prove my sincerity to you?"

Seeing affirmation written all over her face, I moved in, grabbing her chin to lift it up before capturing her lips with mine, planting a quick yet sincere kiss on the lips.

But as I pulled away, Sona gripped me by the collar and pulled me in for another much more kiss as she desperately kissed me like a man dying of thirst finding a puddle. After a solid minute, our lips only separated because she ran out of breath. Letting me go she looked haggard and wiped her mouth with an intense gaze.

"Yuta, I will hold you to your words, you better not go back on them. Got that? If you do, I will not forgive you."

A smirk found its way to my lips.

"I wouldn't dream of it."

Sona smiled back, pulling me down for another kiss.

"You better. Now, let's move to the bed."

That made me raise a questioning eyebrow. Not because I was against it, but it was something that I did not expect from Sona.

"Are you sure about this, Sona?"

She nodded, but her smile seemed a bit vindictive and malicious.

...Which was pretty hot, not gonna lie.

"Yes, I want to have sex with you Yuta-kun, I know my sister hasn't, and I want to see her call me 'Little Sona-tan' when I fuck her husband before her and get pregnant with his babies. And of course because I want to have sex with you, but that is an important reason."

...What the fuck is wrong with me? Why do I find that hot?

"Your wish is my command, my lady."

I used voice to sound extra regal while bowing but was rebuked by my cheeks getting pinched.

"Y-Yuta, we have come this far, do not tease me like that."

Sona scolded, making me apologize before she suddenly snapped her fingers and vanished her clothes, huh, I thought only I could do that.

I admired Sona's naked body laid in front of me, save for her black thigh high's which I approved of. She put her hands on her chest and anxiously waited for my appraisal. Her breasts rivalled Koneko in size, eeking out a win just barely, yet they complimented her figure perfectly nonetheless. I wanted to do nothing more right now than ravish that body.

"So, how do you like my body compared to my sister Yuta?"

"I'm no man of comparison, but what I can say is that I can barely hold myself back from pushing you down right now."

A smile bloomed in Sona's face, and she regained her confidence. She strutted towards me with a pep in her step and pointed to the bed.

"I'm glad, but I'd like to be on top for my first time if that's fine with you, Yuta."

"You'll find no complaint from me, Sona."

Using Shadow Storage, I quickly stripped my clothes and laid down on the bed, my cock already incredibly erect. And shortly after, Sona joined in, straddling my hips, her warmth on my hips only further emboldened my erection. She carefully touched my cock and then her own womb. Instead of the expected apprehension, she looked hungry for this. A pure burning desire behind her eyes.

"What a massive phallus, I wonder if it will fit. But I suppose there is only one way to find out."

Gingerly, Sona lifted herself and lined up her already wet entrance with the tip of my cock, I let my hands fall to the sides, letting her take it at her own pace. She slowly lowered herself, her breath cutting short as the tip of my cock found its way inside her, she closed her eyes and let out a small moan.

"Nnnhh~"

She lowered herself some more, my cock reaching further inside her, she was so tight and so, so wet, probably the wettest girl I have ever been inside of, which seemed to make Sona's job easier as she took my cock further and further into herself. I rubbed her legs to encourage her, and eventually she took me all the way to the base.

"Ahhh~ this feels so good~! I-I can't~"

Without moving, Sona came, squirting all over my torso, but seemingly coming back to her sense and almost as if she were in a haze, she started moving her hips, bouncing on my cock, moving up and down, fucking herself on my cock while gritting her teeth. Seeing her lose her composure like this was incredibly sexy.

I also started putting in my own work. I grabbed her by the hips and helped her speed up while at the same time, pumping my own hips and trying to find her weak spots. Sona bounced on my cock like a woman possessed, she had held herself back and wound up so long that she was letting it all go now.

"Ah~! Ah~! Yuta! I'm cumming! I'm cumming again~!"

Sona kept jumping up and down my hips with such intensity, and I matched her pace easily. I did my best to pleasure her, and it seemed to pay off in dividends. Her legs trembled and I started nearing my climax. I sped her up with my hands, putting more effort, turning her riding me into something more like me fucking her.

"Sona, I'm about to cum!"

"Grh~! Yes, do it! Inside me!"

She sped up herself even further, and I let go of my inhibitions, my balls churned and cum erupted from my cock like a hose and invaded Sona's womb, filling her up to the brim as her legs gave out. A breathless moan leaving her lips as I filled her up. Her eyes all but rolled to the back of her head.

Our orgasm lasted several ecstasy filled seconds before Sona collapsed onto my chest, my cock pulling free out of her, and my seed leaking out of her pussy. She let out a deep breath filled with desire and looked into my eyes. My still hard cock trapped between thighs.

"I believe you are not done with... this~?"

In response, I flipped out positions in the blink of an eye. With her below me and I above her, my hands at the sides of her head, I gave a roguish smile.

"Nope, but this time I'll be on top."

She smiled back, her chest rising up and down in anticipation. She could not even begin to hide how much she wanted this.

"Go ahead, Yuta, now it's my turn to humor you. Make me your wife properly."

『Lord Sebastian Sitri』

Thump! Thump! Thump!

The entirety of Sitri estate shook and quaked at a rhythmic pace asSebastiann took a sip of his coffee, trying not to spill it while the maid next to him blushed like a maiden. He sighed in satisfaction as a smile tugged on his lips, not feeling the looming threat of the Sleeping Disease was definitely great.

He could not have honestly asked for a better son in law, he doubted there existed any out there. Yuta, his new Son-in-Law was the next head of the Leviathan family, but not only that, but he was respectful, powerful and most important, his daughters loved him.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

"Amelia, talk to the Head Butler about arranging some baby rooms in the near future. And for someone to go fix the guest rooms after they are done."

"R-right, my Lord, I'll get right to it! E-Excuse me."

"Hahaha."

Sebastian took another sip of his tea.

He'd look forward to seeing his grandchildren eventually.

Probably sometime soon, more like by the sounds of it.

A/N: Sona finally gets to shine! I have been planning on her sex scene for a while, and I think it turned out pretty well. It seems like for once, Sona is ahead of curve against Serafall. Now if only she gets pregnant first. What did you guys think of Son and her scene? I'd love to know.

Lord Sitri is just a chill guy. He is just happy he'll have grandkids sooner than later.
