

Funerary inscription for Gaius Iulius Barbarianus

Editor

Gawril Kazarow, Boris Gerov, Ivan Hristov

Type of monument

altar

Material

limestone

Find place

near the village of Lomets

Observed in*Origin

Sostra

Dimensions

height 165 cm, width 55 cm, depth 55 cm

Institution and inventory

Regional History Museum - Lovec

No 023.A.A.A.-1.ИHB. № 554

Hand description*Letter size

height 4-7.5 cm

Layout description

Four-sided altar, moulded above and below; 46 cm w. and th. at the upper moulding; 55 cm w. and th. at the lower moulding; 38 cm w. and th. at the body. Inscription on the front surface of the body.

Inscription field

height 77 cm, width 38 cm

Decoration description

The upper moulding is adorned with acroteria. The top represents a pine-cone.

Text*Category of inscription

funerary inscription - prose

Date

second part of II c. AD (according to B. Gerov)

Dating criteria*Images

N. Sh. 2018

N. Sh. 2018

All rights to texts and images are reserved! Terms of Use

Text

- Interpretive
  - Diplomatic
-

D(is) M(anibus)
C(aius) ((·)) Iulius Barbari-
anus ((·)) >(centurio) 5leg(ionis) ((·)) IIII ((·)) Fl(aviae) vixit ((·)) ann(is) ((·)) LI.
Aurelia ((leaf)) Theonis ((·)) uxor
b(ene) m(erenti) p(osuit).

Text

- Translation
  - Coded
  - Xml
-

To the Gods of the Netherworld. Gaius Iulius Barbarianus, centurion of the Fourth Flavian Legion, lived 51 years. His wife Aurelia Theonis erected (this monument) for him, the well-deserving.

Apparatus

Letters in ligature:

6 ) NN;

7 ) AV, HE.

Readings:

The text is compared with the editions through personal observation by N. Sharankov.

4-5 ) ILBulg: -anus | (centurio?) leg(ionis); on the stone: ANVS·> | LEG·