1. Introduction (Times New Roman, 11 Bold)

Manuscript must be written in clear, concise, grammatical English or Bengali. Authors are encouraged to explore Internet Resources in order to give a fresh look at the structure, form, and appearance of papers to be submitted. These guidelines include complete descriptions of the fonts, spacing, and related information for producing your proceedings manuscripts. This document describes, and is written to conform to, author guidelines for the IJMAR. It is prepared in Microsoft Word as a .doc/.docx document.

Text of the manuscript should be arranged in the following order: Title, Abstract, Introduction, Body Text, Result and Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgements and References.

2. Format and Style

Text of the manuscript should be arranged in the following order: Title, Abstract, Introduction, Body Text, Result and Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgements (Times New Roman, 11, 1.15 spacing) and References (Times New Roman, 10, 1.15 spacing).

2.1 Title (Heading 2)

Title should be short and explanatory enough. It should be typed as it is written in sample paper.

2.2 Figures

The Figures are to be numbered according to their sequence in the text. Captions to the figures must be provided. The captions should be kept to a minimum but all symbols and abbreviations used are to be explained. Figures should be embedded in the article in the correct position. Insert figures and tables after they are cited in the text. Use the abbreviation "Fig. 1", even at the beginning of a sentence.

2.3 Tables

Tables should be numbered consecutively in accordance with their appearance in the text. The number of tables in the article should be limited to include only the most important data. Tables that are not absolutely essential, as well as long and detailed tables should be placed in supplementary materials.

Sl. No.	Heading 1	Heading 2	Heading 3	Heading 4
1	S1	10	Ganges	K1
2	S2	13	Brahmaputra	K2

3. Reference Style

List and number all bibliographical references in 11-point Times, single-spaced, at the end of your paper. The style of references must be as given below. When referenced in the text, enclose the citation number in square brackets, for example [1]. Where appropriate, include the name(s) of editors of referenced books. The template will number citations consecutively within brackets [1].
