

Final Project: Food Memory

Write a personal story about a single food, dish, or drink connected to a memorable moment (or moments) in your life. This food memory can be a moment shared with family and/or friends, a food you associate with special celebrations or traditions, or a food that reminds you of someone /something / or somewhere special. The memory can be positive, negative, humorous, or sentimental.

Requirements

The food memory must

1. be between 400 and 600 words long
2. be preceded by a header and have an original title
3. include a recipe of the food, dish, or drink on which the memory is centered
4. describe the food, dish, or drink in mouthwatering detail. Try to use all five senses: explore your food's color, shape, size, flavor, texture, smell, and the sound it makes when you are chewing it.
5. discuss why this moment or event was / is meaningful or important to you

The food memory may include photos/images of the food, the moment, tradition, people, places, or things you connect it with
