Painting And Decorating In Hampstead

We are a trusted painting and decorating firm proud to serve the people of Hampstead and provide a high quality and reliable service. Whatever work you need doing, whether it is on a large commercial project or a small residential property, we have the experience and skills to carry out any kind of painting and decorating work you require.

Residential

We are always very respectful of your home environment and the area you live in. We take care with our work, and always carry out each of our jobs to the highest standard. All of our work is fully guaranteed, and we are covered by full public liability insurance.

We offer free quotes and are always happy to advise you on the best possible course of action to take before you make any decisions. If you have different options we can also discuss those with you, and leave it to you to make the decision that is best for your home.

About Page

Jimmy Blake has over twenty years of experience in the painting and decorating trade. It has been his sole focus since beginning at the age of nineteen, and since then he has built up a strong business that provides quality painting and decorating services to people in the Hampstead area.

He employs a handful of skilled and qualified friends and family members who he knows he can trust to carry out reliable work to a high standard in people's homes and commercial buildings.

Covered by full public liability insurance, all of our work is guaranteed to the highest standard.

How We Work

Free Quotes and Advice

After an initial discussion on the phone, we can visit you to further discuss details, survey the area and provide you with a free quote for the work that we do.

Everything Taken Care Of

We arrange everything that needs to be done so that we can do our work properly for you. If an exterior decoration requires scaffolding, for example, we arrange it and include it in the free quote so that you don't have to worry about sorting it out. We will arrange the netting along with it, safety measures and alarms for insurance purposes should you deem them necessary. We can arrange any necessary licences for an exterior decoration on a main road.

Our aim is to take the pressure off you and make things as easy as possible from your end, leaving you with a look and finish to that you are proud to have.

Prompt and Polite Expertise

When we carry out work we are always prompt, reliable and respectful of our surroundings. We carry out work to the highest standards as efficiently as possible so that you can have the decoration finished as soon as possible.

Our many years of experience means that we have seen it all and know how to deal with anything that arises on the job, and we are always happy to keep you informed of our progress, and answer any questions you might have during the decoration process.

What makes our decorating services special?

We provide competitive quotes that provide the highest quality services. Our service means that we arrange and take care of everything for you, including any extra arrangements that need to be made such as scaffolding or arranging appropriate licences. This ensures that we can carry out work to the highest standard for you, while you are able to take the pressure off of yourself when a job is being done.

We use the highest quality materials to meet our high standards, and we will always do everything properly from the base level so that you have a long-lasting finish to be proud of.

We are always around to discuss anything that's on your mind, and all of our work is fully insured and guaranteed.
